9 (The following occurred in the absence of the 10 prospective jury panel.)

11 THE COURT: I want all the student interns,
12 please -- I assume you are all student interns -- to sit all
13 the way in the back on my right. All of you, please, the last 14 row. There should be no talking during the proceedings,
15 please.

16 We can bring out the defendants.

17 Thank you.

18 (The defendants are present.)

19 THE CLERK: Criminal cause for jury selection, the 20 docket number 10 CR 268, United States versus Shaun Taylor and
21 Timothy Pinkney.

22 Please state your appearances.

23 MR. AMATRUDA: Matthew Amatruda, Tali Farhadian for 24 the United States. With us at counsel table is Special Agent
25 Thomas McNally of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

1 Good morning, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: Good morning.

3 For the defendants?

4 MR. RINALDO: Paul Rinaldo and Carl Herman for 5 Mr. Taylor.

6 Good morning, Judge.

7 THE COURT: Good morning. Good morning to all of 8 you.

9 MR. RUSSELL: Good morning, Your Honor.

10 Royce Russell and Richard Jasper representing 11 Mr. Pinkney.

12 THE COURT: Good morning to all of you.

13 We are here to begin with our jury selection. If 14 you will recall, we called 41 to come in this morning. They 15 are in sequential order. That's of the jurors that there was 16 follow-up necessary, both as to defense challenges for cause
17 and then additional follow-up questions.

18 As I was going through some of the questionnaires
19 again, there are some for whom perhaps there may be some 20 sensitive medical information or personal information and I
21 just thought that those people I will just call up to the 22 side bar right off the bat rather than start questioning them
23 and address those sensitive issues up front.

24 What I am proposing to do is to add another row up
25 in the front here so that we will have 24. We will start with

1 juror number one, would be the one closest to where the court
2 reporter is on the inside of the well as opposed to -- just
3 outside of the jury box. So that 24 will end up over there.
4 And then we can put six in the well for 30. So that will have
5 two here.

6 The problem is, there is the podium and all the 7 other stuff on the side there. So we can probably fit two or 8 three in the front and then another two or three just up to 9 where the chairs are at the defense table, just so that in 10 case there is conversation at defense counsel table, I don't
11 want the jurors to be able to hear anything.

12 Then we will sit the rest of them across, going that
13 way on the second row following behind until we fit the seats.
14 If that's okay with everybody.

15 MR. RINALDO: Fine, Judge.

16 MR. RUSSELL: Fine.

17 THE COURT: Hopefully, we will be able to seat them
18 all that way.

19 Okay. Any questions before we send for the jurors?

20 MR. RINALDO: No, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: Anything?

22 Since we have a lot of young able bodies here who 23 are interested in participating in the court process, may we 24 have some interns up here to help us move some chairs around?

25 THE CLERK: Shall I call for the jurors?

1 THE COURT: Yes, please.

2 You can just take some chairs from in here from the
3 counsel table. They won't need them today.

4 Thank you very much.

5 You are going to have to move them a little closer
6 to where the reporter is.

7 Exactly. Great.

8 Thank you.

9 We need six up in the front total.

10 They can sit on the benches. They will be fine.

11 Thank you very much.

12 (Prospective jury panel enters courtroom and the 13 following occurs.)

14 THE COURT: Ladies and gentlemen, please come in.
15 Go all the way to the front and then go all the way to the 16 side. Front row back in there. This is the well of the 17 courtroom. Just go inside to any seat. Go all the way to the 18 end. Take every possible seat. You can sit down as you come
19 in. Okay. Please fill every possible seat. Go all the way
20 to the end.

21 As you come in, go all the way to the end. Take
22 every possible seat. Go all the way to the end, please. Fill
23 every possible seat. It doesn't matter, just go in and fill
24 every possible seat.

25 Okay. Come all the way to the front now and start

1 filling the front row over there. Go all the way to the end.

2 Please step up and come all the way up and fill in 3 every possible seat, starting with the first row. Go all the 4 way to the end and fill every possible seat.

5 Okay. Members of the audience, if there is no room
6 for the audience, you are going to have to step out until we 7 clear the rows.

8 There is room in the front here. There is one seat
9 right here in the front.

10 Good morning, ladies and gentlemen.

11 We are going to call the case.

12 THE CLERK: Criminal cause for jury selection,
13 docket number 10 CR 268, United States versus Shaun Taylor and
14 Timothy Pinkney.

15 Please state your appearances.

16 MR. AMATRUDA: Matthew Amatruda and Tali Farhadian
17 for the United States. With us this morning at counsel table
18 is Special Agent Thomas McNally from the Federal Bureau of 19 Investigation.

20 Good morning, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: Good morning.

22 And for Mr. Shaun Taylor?

23 Mr. Taylor, if we could have you stand up, please?

24 Good morning.

25 MR. RINALDO: Good morning.

1 My name is Paul Rinaldo.

2 Good morning, Judge.

3 MR. HERMAN: Good morning, Judge.

4 Carl Herman, also for Mr. Taylor standing to my
5 right, Judge.

6 THE COURT: Thank you. And good morning.

7 Please have a seat.

8 And for Mr. Pinkney, who is at the end in the white
9 shirt? Counsels, may I have your appearance, please?

10 MR. RUSSELL: Good morning, Your Honor; Royce
11 Russell.

12 MR. JASPER: Good morning, Judge; Richard Jasper.

13 THE COURT: Good morning.

14 Thank you.

15 I've had the parties introduce themselves because it
16 has been a little while since you were all in that very big 17 jury room and you were called in to fill out a questionnaire.
18 I remind you that at that time you were administered your oath
19 as jurors and I remind you that you are still under oath.
20 You've all been brought here today so that we could follow up
21 on some of the responses that you all gave to the 22 questionnaires.

23 Again, my name is Dora Irizarry. I am the judge who 24 is going to be presiding over this matter. To my right is one
25 of my law clerks, Jennifer Klein, and also to the back, if we

1 could have Mr. Temidayo Aganga-Williams is also one of my law
2 clerks, who will be assisting me.

3 I have some students in the back who are observing
4 here today.

5 So what we are going to do, ladies and gentlemen, is 6 we do have, as I say, a few questions to follow-up on with 7 you. We are going to call you to come and sit down. We are 8 going to start with the front row. That's here in front of 9 the jury box. This box here is called the jury box. This 10 inner part here is called the well of the courtroom.

11 We are going to bring you in and we are going to 12 have you sit according to your numbers. Remember, we are not
13 using your names. You should know the number of the juror
14 questionnaire that you filled out because that's the only way
15 that we are going to be referring to you.

16 Okay?

17 I am going to ask my deputy to start calling your
18 numbers out and have you sit in that order.

19 THE CLERK: Number 4, number 7, number 8, 10, 15,
20 20, 23, 24, 27, 35, 36, 39, 41, 43, 47, 48, 49, 50, 56 -- I'm 21 sorry 52 first. So 50, 52, then 56, 59, 60, 64, 66, 68, 70.

22 THE COURT: 68, all the way over. Not that far. We 23 want to be able to see your lovely faces. We are only going 24 to seat three of you. So from the end we can fit three, so we 25 can see you.

1 THE CLERK: 84, 86, 90, 93.

2 THE COURT: All right. The gentleman who is in that
3 front row in the yellow shirt, if we could just ask you to
4 move back for a minute so that we can start filling that row
5 towards the end. We are going to put six back there.

6 THE CLERK: Okay.

7 95, 96, 99, 100, 102, 105. That's six in that row.

8 THE COURT: Gentleman in the colorful shirt there,
9 yes, if we could ask you just to sit -- move to the back.

10 THE CLERK: He's actually the next one.

11 THE COURT: Just slide over then. Okay. Perfect.

12 THE CLERK: So then he's number 106, 117, 127, 128
13 and 136.

14 THE COURT: All right. Thank you all very much.

15 I am going to ask if I can have the attorneys come
16 up to the side with the reporter.

17 (Side bar.)

18 THE COURT: I meant to ask you all on the record
19 before, are your clients okay with their not being present at 20 the side bar?

21 MR. RUSSELL: I will ask. I think it's all right.

22 MR. RINALDO: My client is fine witness, Judge.

23 MR. RUSSELL: Yes.

24 (In open court.)

25 THE COURT: Can we have juror number four come up

1 here, please?

2 (Juror present.)

3 THE COURT: You mentioned that your husband was
4 going to have some radiation treatment.

5 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: He started them. I brought 6 his schedule.

7 THE COURT: I didn't know if you wanted to talk
8 about that openly.

9 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: That's his schedule. Today
10 is number ten. So far so good.

11 THE COURT: Wow.

12 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: But I don't know what's 13 going to happen.

14 THE COURT: So he goes every day?

15 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Every day, yes.

16 THE COURT: Who goes with him?

17 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: So far he can go by himself.

18 THE COURT: But you don't know what's going to 19 happen with him, right?

20 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Exactly. That's why I wrote
21 it.

22 THE COURT: Yes. When is he supposed to -- this is 23 his whole --

24 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: August, I think, 15th is it.

25 THE COURT: So he is going every single day

1 beginning -- he began on the tenth?

2 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right. Low dose. That's 3 why.

4 THE COURT: Low dose. Okay.

5 He skips one day a week?

6 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. July 4th he is off. He
7 meets with the doctor today, every Monday.

8 THE COURT: I see. Okay.

9 So far he has been handling it okay?

10 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, great.

11 THE COURT: If you were chosen to sit -- I will 12 return this to you -- if you were chosen to sit on this jury,
13 if you were chosen to sit on this jury and he needed some 14 help, let's say, heaven forbid, but let's say that he should 15 have some reaction.

16 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Somebody has to drive him or
17 something.

18 THE COURT: Is there someone available who could do
19 that?

20 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I guess.

21 THE COURT: The --

22 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Usually it would be me.

23 THE COURT: Usually it would be you? You are the 24 one that has been going to the doctor with him all the time?

25 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I went to the consults and

1 everything.

2 THE COURT: You went to the consults and everything.

3 Would you be able to focus on what's going on here?

4 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: As far as that's concerned,
5 I think so.

6 THE COURT: Okay. Let me ask you, you also
7 mentioned that you were a teacher are? Are you still a
8 teacher?

9 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, retired, eight years
10 tomorrow.

11 THE COURT: Must be nice.

12 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It is.

13 THE COURT: Congratulations.

14 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Thanks.

15 THE COURT: You mentioned that there was a homicide
16 of a fellow teacher.

17 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

18 THE COURT: Apparently a home invasion?

19 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

20 THE COURT: Is that right?

21 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: She was be headed and he
22 rode around with her head in the trunk on Long Island.

23 THE COURT: Was the person arrested, ultimately?

24 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I think he was confined to a
25 mental institution.

1 THE COURT: Okay. Do you know whether he went to
2 trial or whether he just --

3 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I am not sure.

4 THE COURT: You don't know?

5 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, I am not sure.

6 THE COURT: At the time that that happened, were you
7 involved in the case at all?

8 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

9 THE COURT: In terms of any kind of testifying or 10 anything like that?

11 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

12 THE COURT: Is there anything at all about that 13 situation that you think might affect your ability to be fair
14 and impartial here?

15 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

16 THE COURT: The charges do include a couple of 17 charges of murder, a shooting I believe. I think the 18 attorneys can correct me if I am wrong.

19 MR. AMATRUDA: Correct.

20 THE COURT: Not quite the same but similar charges.
21 Would you be able to set aside whatever happened to that
22 teacher?

23 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, I think so.

24 THE COURT: Okay. Did they provide any counseling
25 at the school to the staff or the children?

1 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: She wasn't working at the
2 school then. She was someone who had worked previously. She 3 was a sub.

4 THE COURT: I see.

5 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: And one of the women that I
6 car pooled with is her sister-in-law.

7 THE COURT: I see. Okay.

8 Just going back to your husband again, I guess it's 9 kind of hard to predict what's going to happen. I guess the 10 concern that we have is, even if you were to start serving,
11 obviously we gave a date of somewhere around the middle of 12 August for this case to end. We won't be sitting on Fridays.
13 But if it should happen that he would need somebody, is there
14 anybody at all that could help him, in the family or neighbors
15 or somebody?

16 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm sure we can find
17 somebody.

18 THE COURT: Okay. Let me have you take a seat.
19 Okay?

20 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Okay.

21 THE COURT: Thank you very much.

22 (Juror leaves side bar.)

23 THE COURT: Is there any follow-up that you want me
24 to ask?

25 MR. AMATRUDA: Not from the government.

1 Thank you, Your Honor.

2 MR. RINALDO: No.

3 MR. RUSSELL: No, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: Okay. I think the next ones we can just 5 do in open court.

6 (In open court.)

7 THE COURT: Let me just say this, ladies and
8 gentlemen. We are going to follow-up with, as I said, with 9 some of the responses that you gave on the questionnaires.

10 If there is something that we touch on that you feel
11 is something you would like to address more privately, as you
12 just saw us today with juror number four, just let us know.
13 Okay?

14 We want to try not to do that with every single
15 person because it slows down the process, but we also do want
16 to respect your privacy. So if there is something that we 17 touch on that you feel is something you would much rather 18 discuss with us more privately at the side, just let me know.

19 Juror number seven, you mentioned that you had a 20 nephew who had been shot and killed and there was someone who 21 had been arrested and served in prison.

22 Are we talking about the same person?

23 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

24 THE COURT: Different?

25 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Two different nephews.

1 THE COURT: Two different nephews, okay.

2 In connection with the nephew who was diseased, how
3 long ago was that?

4 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: About -- about three years.

5 THE COURT: About three years ago?

6 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

7 THE COURT: Did they ever find the person who did
8 it?

9 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Not at all.

10 THE COURT: No.

11 How do you feel about the way that law enforcement
12 responded to the situation?

13 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Oh, they responded
14 beautifully. I mean, they really worked with my sister. As a
15 matter of fact, the --

16 MR. HERMAN: We are having trouble hearing.

17 THE COURT: If you can keep your voice up nice and 18 loud.

19 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Sure.

20 THE COURT: Thank you.

21 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Do you want me to --

22 THE COURT: If you can just repeat the last
23 response. I think maybe they didn't hear all the way at the 24 end.

25 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I felt that law enforcement

1 dealt with the situation beautifully.

2 THE COURT: Then you had another nephew who wound up
3 going to prison?

4 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

5 THE COURT: How do you feel about the way that the
6 criminal justice system handled his situation?

7 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Exactly as they should have.
8 He was naughty.

9 THE COURT: Okay. You had a younger brother who had 10 some issues with alcoholism.

11 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes. My youngest brother
12 Randy.

13 THE COURT: Okay. How is he doing today? Is he 14 better?

15 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Excellent.

16 THE COURT: Okay. So he's in recovery?

17 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: He has been for quite 18 sometime now, yes.

19 THE COURT: Congratulations to him.

20 As you may recall, I mentioned that this case
21 involves conspiracy to distribute various kinds of drugs.
22 There is powder cocaine, crack cocaine and heroin.

23 Is there anything at all about those charges or
24 anything at all connected with the fact that it involves drugs
25 that would affect your ability to be fair and impartial in

1 this case?

2 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Not at all.

3 THE COURT: Okay. I wasn't sure if you had left a
4 blank intentionally or accidentally. There is what I like to 5 call the catchall question all the way at the end:

6 Is there any reason why you think you could not
7 serve on this jury?

8 I am going to ask you now, is there any reason why
9 you think you could not serve on this jury?

10 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

11 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

12 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: You are quite welcome.

13 THE COURT: Juror number eight, good morning.

14 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Good morning.

15 THE COURT: You mentioned that you had some 16 difficulty with English. I wanted to follow-up with that.

17 What level of school did you go to? You didn't 18 answer that question.

19 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I didn't go to any school
20 here.

21 THE COURT: You didn't go to school in the United 22 States?

23 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

24 THE COURT: Did you go to school somewhere else?

25 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes. I was born in Vietnam.

1 THE COURT: So you went to school in Vietnam?

2 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

3 THE COURT: Okay. And the schools in Vietnam, in 4 what languages do they conduct the courses?

5 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: In Vietnam, mostly we
6 learning Chinese and Vietnamese.

7 THE COURT: Okay.

8 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

9 THE COURT: How long have you been in the United
10 States?

11 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: About 20 some years.

12 THE COURT: You have been here 20 years.

13 What kind of a job do you do? It wasn't clear. You
14 wrote something about banking.

15 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

16 THE COURT: And standby letters of credit. If you
17 can just talk to us about what that entails?

18 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I work Japanese bank and my 19 job -- my job is like doing some stamp letter of credit.

20 THE COURT: What does that mean? Excuse my 21 ignorance. I know very little about banking.

22 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: My -- I don't know how to
23 explain it. My English not good.

24 THE COURT: What do you do exactly?

25 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I doing like some documents

1 and inputting and doing the payment about this kind,
2 inputting.

3 THE COURT: So you get a document that tells you how
4 much you have to pay into an account, is that what you do?

5 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, kind of like that, yes.
6 Yes.

7 THE COURT: I see.

1 THE COURT: When you do your job, are you working
2 with other people, as well, or are you just sitting by
3 yourself with a mountain of paper?

4 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. We have a whole
5 department together.

6 THE COURT: You have a whole department together?

7 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

8 THE COURT: And you did serve on a grand jury --

9 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

10 THE COURT: -- at one point. Do you remember how 11 long ago it was? We don't need to know the exact year, more
12 or less about how long it was.

13 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: About ten years ago.

14 THE COURT: About ten years ago?

15 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

16 THE COURT: Do you remember whether it was a state
17 grand jury or whether it was a federal grand jury?

18 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't remember.

19 THE COURT: Was it near here?

20 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

21 THE COURT: The short building next door?

22 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Around here. Another
23 building. On the other side.

24 THE COURT: On the other side?

25 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

1 THE COURT: The other side of the entrance here?

2 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Not this building, the other
3 building.

4 THE COURT: Closer to where the trains are?

5 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. Trains and the second
6 building, the other entrance.

7 THE COURT: Okay. How long did you sit on that
8 grand jury?

9 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't know.

10 THE COURT: How long were you part of that grand
11 jury? Did you get chosen to sit on the grand jury?

12 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

13 THE COURT: So, you heard criminal cases?

14 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Not really. Very small
15 cases. They have different kinds of cases.

16 THE COURT: Do you remember whether you sat on it a
17 week or two weeks or a month, or did you sit for certain days
18 and come back?

19 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: About two weeks.

20 THE COURT: Thank you.

21 Our Juror No. Ten. Hi.

22 You mentioned -- there was a question about whether
23 you or a close friend or a family member had ever been stopped
24 or questioned or investigated, arrested or prosecuted;
25 basically, any contact with law enforcement, to put it simply.

1 You answered, no, but then you mentioned that a cousin of your
2 spouse --

3 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

4 THE COURT: -- had been sent to jail. Do you know
5 anything at all about what the case was about?

6 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: About drugs.

7 THE COURT: It was about drugs. Do you know
8 anything else besides that?

9 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. That was like fifteen
10 years ago.

11 THE COURT: Fifteen years ago. Did you actually
12 know that cousin?

13 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I know him, yes.

14 THE COURT: Do you know whether that cousin went to 15 trial?

16 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, he did.

17 THE COURT: How do you feel about the way that the
18 criminal justice system treated him and his case?

19 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I think it was -- I'm not 20 really sure, because we're not that close, and then he was 21 sent back to the Philippines.

22 THE COURT: He was sent back to the Philippines.
23 So, more than fifteen years ago was the last contact that you
24 had with that cousin?

25 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

1           THE COURT: There was a question about possible
2 media attention, and it's very important -- I don't want to
3 see reading material out, please. Please put that reading
4 material away. All of you need to pay attention to what's 5 going on here, because what's going on here may be relevant to 6 you. This relates to everyone. Okay.

7           And if you will remember back when you were handed
8 out the questionnaire, I mentioned there is a possibility that
9 this case could get media attention. Maybe it will, maybe it
10 will not, but it's very important, if you are chosen to serve
11 and even now as we're going through this jury selection
12 process, that if you happen to hear anything or see anything
13 about this case being reported over any kind of media, whether 14 it's the TV, newspapers, the Internet, YouTube, FaceBook,
15 anything at all, maybe you are looking at your cell phone or 16 iPads -- there's so many things out there these days that I
17 cannot keep up -- what we're going to ask you to do --
18 obviously, you won't know if it's being reported unless you
19 see it -- what we're asking you to do is look away. Don't 20 listen. Turn it over. Turn the page. Scan it over. Do
21 whatever it is, so that you are not actually reading it.

22           So, my question is -- one of the questions that was
23 asked was whether you would follow that instruction that I am
24 going to be giving, and I'm going to give it every day: That 25 you are not to watch TV, go on the Internet or listen to or

1 watch any media coverage regarding this case, and you can only
2 consider the information that's presented in the courtroom,
3 the evidence that's presented in the courtroom.

4 Our Juror No. Ten, you said that you might be more
5 interested to know about the case, I guess, and to know what
6 the people are thinking. Can you talk to us a little bit
7 about what you mean?

8 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: To get more information.

9 THE COURT: Well, the only information that the jury
10 can consider is the evidence that's presented in the 11 courtroom, and even then, the only evidence that the jury can 12 consider is the evidence that I say is admissible.

13 So, during the course of the trial, for example a
14 lawyer may object to a question that is asked, and I may 15 sustain that objection, or maybe an answer has already been 16 given, and I say, Okay, jury, you have to forget that that 17 answer was given. That answer is not admissible. So, the 18 jury cannot consider that. You can't consider a question that 19 was asked that was objected to. You can only consider the 20 evidence that I say, It's okay, that's evidence that you can 21 consider, and you can't base it on anything else that might be 22 reported outside.

23 Would you be able to follow that instruction?

24 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

25 THE COURT: Because believe me, the best information

1 is going to be presented here in the courtroom and not over
2 the media. Do you understand that?

3 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

4 THE COURT: And you can follow that instruction?

5 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

6 THE COURT: Thank you.

7 And Juror No. 15. Good morning.

8 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Hi.

9 THE COURT: You also indicated that you had some 10 difficulty with English. I wanted to ask you: What other 11 neighborhoods did you live in besides -- what neighborhood are 12 you living in now, just generally?

13 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Most of, Italian. My
14 neighbors is very quiet. They don't have something difficult.

15 THE COURT: Did you go to school?

16 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Only six months, six months
17 for the language, for the basic English.

18 THE COURT: For basic English here?

19 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

20 THE COURT: Where are you from originally?

21 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I come from China.

22 THE COURT: Did you go to school in China?

23 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, high school.

24 THE COURT: High school, up to high school?

25 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

1 THE COURT: That was all in China; when you went to
2 school, all of it was in China?

3 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

4 THE COURT: So, the only schooling you've had in the 5 United States is six months for English?

6 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

7 THE COURT: And do you work outside of the home?

8 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes. I work outside for the 9 hardware store.

10 THE COURT: What do you do at the hardware store?

11 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Bookkeeper.

12 THE COURT: You are a bookkeeper. Does that require
13 you to read any documents?

14 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Doing for the inventory,
15 accounts payable. For the basic paperwork.

16 THE COURT: For basic paperwork?

17 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

18 THE COURT: How do you communicate at work? Do you
19 communicate in English or in Chinese?

20 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, Chinese. Most,
21 Chinese.

22 THE COURT: Your employer also is Chinese?

23 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

24 THE COURT: Thank you.

25 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Thank you.

1 THE COURT: There is one other thing I wanted to ask
2 you, and perhaps we should talk to you at the side.

3 If I can see the attorneys and the reporter.

5

6 THE COURT: You can come closer. So, you mentioned
7 that you heard of Mr. Jasper, that you had heard he was a good
8 attorney?

9 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I see the name. I write
10 down. I don't know.

11 THE COURT: You don't know where you heard of 12 Mr. Jasper before?

13 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

14 THE COURT: Anybody here look familiar to you?

15 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

16 THE COURT: Like you have seen anybody here before?

17 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

18 THE COURT: Okay. All right.

19 MR. RINALDO: Judge, would you ask her if she thinks
20 her difficulty with English would affect her ability to sit
21 through that trial?

22 THE COURT: Do you think that you would be able to 23 follow the trial based -- there's a lot that we're going to be 24 discussing in terms of legal principles and things like that 25 at the end of the case. Would you be able to follow what

1 we're talking about?

2 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Most English, I don't
3 understand. I don't understand.

4 THE COURT: Okay. The neighborhood that you live
5 in, is it a mixed neighborhood?

6 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

7 THE COURT: Some Chinese stores, and you have --

8 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: We are neighbors, very
9 quiet, and my family, very quiet. It's nice neighborhood.

10 MR. ROYCE: I want to have a conversation without 11 the juror present.

12 MR. AMATRUDA: Your Honor, you mentioned prior jury
13 service, but not whether it was grand jury or trial jury or 14 what type of service it was.

15
16 THE COURT: Did you ever serve on a jury before?

17 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes. I go to grand jury.

18 THE COURT: Did they ask you to actually sit on the
19 grand jury?

20 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Sit one day. English is not 21 too good.

22 THE COURT: You sat one day and that was it, so they 23 sent you home?

24 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Only one day. Come one day
25 and go home.

1 THE COURT: So, when you went to the grand jury, is
2 that the one that's near the borough hall over there?

3 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, yes, borough hall.

4 THE COURT: All right. You can have a seat. Just 5 take your seat.

6 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Thank you.

7 MR. ROYCE: Your Honor, I believe Juror No. Ten, was 8 it, I think you questioned her about she had some issue with 9 her kids? That's the note we have.

10 MR. JASPER: Judge, I think it was her children had 11 doctors' appointments.

12 MR. ROYCE: At least, that's what our notes had as 13 far as the follow-up was concerned. We wanted to make sure we 14 didn't miss it.

15 (In open court.)

16

17 THE COURT: Juror No. Ten, can we just ask you
18 something.

20

21 THE COURT: Hi. I'm sorry. I forgot to ask you.
22 You mentioned your children have some doctors' appointments?

23 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm a single mom. We're not
24 together anymore, so I'm the only one with them.

25 THE COURT: How old are your children?

1 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Fourteen and eleven.

2 THE COURT: So, who takes care of them.

3 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right now, my niece from
4 Florida is with them.

5 THE COURT: When are the appointments?

6 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It's in my phone. I don't
7 know. But it's in July. I'm not sure what date.

8 THE COURT: In July?

9 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

10 THE COURT: It possible that they could be switched 11 over to a Friday?

12 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I can call later and find 13 out.

14 THE COURT: Are these like regular appointments?

15 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Just like dental and doctor.

16 THE COURT: The general follow-up that children
17 always go through?

18 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: September is for my other
19 daughter.

20 THE COURT: We don't need to worry about September.
21 You'll be fine for September. But any appointments that you
22 can recall now coming up?

23 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. Just the dental and 24 doctors. That's it. Maybe I can do it on the afternoon.

25 THE COURT: We won't meet on Fridays, so if it's

1 possible, if you can move it to Fridays?

2 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Okay.

3 THE COURT: Fridays, you won't come here to court.
4 Fridays you can go to work or do whatever it is that you want
5 to do.

6 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Okay.

7 THE COURT: Thank you.

8 MR. RINALDO: I was going to ask if we could have 9 consent to excuse --

10 THE COURT: I don't want to do that right now. I'll 11 make a notation of that. Okay.

12 MR. RINALDO: Thank you, your Honor.

13 MR. ROYCE: Thank you, your Honor.

14 (In open court.)

15

16 THE COURT: Juror No. 20. Good morning. You also
17 indicated that your English may not be so perfect, that you
18 understand a little bit better than you speak. You didn't 19 tell us how far you went in school.

20 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I didn't do any school here.

21 THE COURT: You didn't go to school in the United
22 States?

23 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

24 THE COURT: Where did you go to school?

25 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: My country, Slovenia.

1 THE COURT: How far did you go in school?

2 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I finished college.

3 THE COURT: You finished college?

4 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

5 THE COURT: What languages do they teach courses in
6 college in Slovenia?

7 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: We are neighbors with Italy
8 and Austria, so German and Italian.

9 THE COURT: The courses can be German and Italian.

10 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes. I learned German.

11 THE COURT: German?

12 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

13 THE COURT: So, you know German?

14 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I did it so many years ago,
15 I don't know.

16 THE COURT: I know. I studied French for like eight
17 years, and it's very rusty. It's very rusty.

18 You are in the hotel business. I assume that that 19 requires you to deal with people on a daily basis; correct?

20 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

21 THE COURT: What do you do exactly for the hotel
22 business?

23 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Excuse me?

24 THE COURT: What do you do exactly for your job?

25 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm a bellman.

1 THE COURT: You are a bellman?

2 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

3 THE COURT: And you've been doing that for how long?

4 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Since I'm here.

5 THE COURT: Since you were here?

6 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

7 THE COURT: And you also mentioned that there was
8 somebody who was involved in a legal action against the Long
9 Island Rail Road, the aunt of your daughter?

10 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes. I didn't know how to 11 say that, but she's a godmother.

12 THE COURT: What happened to her? Did she have an 13 accident on the Long Island Rail Road?

14 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. She was involved in 15 disabled things last year. She was the office manager for the 16 doctor.

17 THE COURT: I don't understand.

18 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: So many people went to 19 disability on Long Island Rail Road. She was involved with 20 that.

21 THE COURT: I see. Was she involved in the lawsuit
22 itself, in getting information, or what was her involvement
23 with that?

24 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: She was an office manager in 25 doctor's office, and she was -- she knew everything.

1 THE COURT: I see. And the doctor was involved in
2 terms of the treatment that he gave to people that said they
3 had disabilities?

4 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah.

5 THE COURT: So, did she have to testify?

6 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Oh, yes.

7 THE COURT: Did you go to court to see that
8 testimony?

9 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Last day.

10 THE COURT: You went the last day of her testimony?

11 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

12 THE COURT: Did you talk to her about how she felt
13 about the process?

14 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: She wasn't too happy. She 15 got house arrest.

16 THE COURT: Is there anything about that experience
17 that your aunt's daughter had that would affect your ability
18 to be fair and impartial in this case?

19 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't think so.

20 THE COURT: This is for everyone. One of the 21 instructions that I will be giving you, both today and as we 22 go through the case if you are chosen to serve, is, you cannot 23 discuss this case, including the jury selection process, with 24 anyone. That includes your children, your spouses, your 25 friends, your neighbors, the hotel bellmen. You can't discuss

1 the case with anyone.

2 You mentioned, Juror No. 20, that you would feel
3 that you would have to discuss it with your wife. Would you
4 be able to follow my instruction and not discuss it with your
5 wife if I said you cannot discuss it?

6 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I am not promise you that.

7 THE COURT: Why is that?

8 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Because I don't hide
9 anything from my wife.

10 THE COURT: Let me put it this way: Would you be 11 able to at least hold back and not discuss anything at all
12 about the case with your wife until the case was over and a
13 verdict -- a decision had been made by the jury? Could you at 14 least wait until the whole case is over?

15 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I can try, but I cannot 16 promise.

17 THE COURT: Thank you.

18 Juror No. 23, good morning.

19 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Good morning.

20 THE COURT: Without actually telling us the name of 21 the place that you work, you mentioned that you have been 22 working in the legal field for about twenty-six years. Have 23 you always worked at the same place?

24 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Two separate places.

25 THE COURT: Two separate places. Did any of those

1 places ever do criminal work?

2 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes. But I was not involved
3 in that.

4 THE COURT: So, where you are working now, do they
5 do mostly civil work?

6 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: The work that I do is 7 product liability.

8 THE COURT: Product liability. Okay.

9 What is your function exactly? You help prepare
10 paperwork; is that what you do?

11 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: If I'm asked. But mostly,
12 my work is administrative.

13 THE COURT: Administrative. Okay.

14 Do you ever have occasion to go to court with any of 15 the attorneys?

16 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

17 THE COURT: Is there anything at all about the work
18 that you do that you think would affect your ability to be
19 fair and impartial?

20 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

21 THE COURT: She says that with such a big sigh.

22 You mentioned that you were a victim of some 23 violence some twenty years ago. Did you ever report the 24 incidence to the police?

25 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Oh, yes.

1 THE COURT: How do you feel about the way they
2 responded?

3 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I've had good experience.
4 It was rough sometimes. I have good experience with the
5 police, and I have some not so great experiences with them
6 during that time, during that time of that period.

7 THE COURT: I assume that's all over now?

8 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: That's all over now.

9 THE COURT: That's all gone?

10 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

11 THE COURT: Well, is there anything -- did you
12 ultimately have to go to court?

13 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I did not.

14 THE COURT: Is there anything at all about the 15 experiences you had in connection with law enforcement that 16 you think would affect your ability to be fair and impartial
17 here?

18 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

19 THE COURT: Of course, this is for everyone. I'm 20 going to be giving an instruction that the testimony of police
21 officers is to be evaluated the same as the testimony of 22 anybody else, regardless of what they do for a living, whether 23 they are a teacher, a stay-at-home mom or dad. It doesn't 24 matter they do for a living. Their testimony is to be 25 evaluated the same way as anybody else's. Would you be able

1 to follow that instruction?

2 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

3 THE COURT: Is there anybody here who would have any
4 difficulty following that instruction? Raise your hand.

5 Okay. Nobody has raised their hand.

6 And you have a friend who, at some point, had been
7 stopped by the police. You mentioned that you were not there.
8 I guess you talked to your friend about what happened. Did
9 your friends indicate what their feelings were or impressions
10 were about how they were treated?

11 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It's always bad.

12 THE COURT: Was the person allowed to go, or were 13 they brought into a precinct or arrested?

14 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: They were allowed to go.

15 THE COURT: Is there anything about the experience
16 that your friend had that you think would affect your ability
17 to be fair and impartial?

18 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

19 THE COURT: You mentioned that "It's always bad."
20 What do you mean by that?

21 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: What?

22 THE COURT: The terms of the stop, for example, that 23 your friend experienced?

24 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, remember, he's telling
25 me these stories. He would tell me that he was just simply

1 going through the turnstile and was stopped, frisked. At one
2 point, he told me they pulled down his pants -- he was simply
3 walking down the street -- to search him. So, those 4 experiences were bad.

5 THE COURT: Okay. So, this happened to him more
6 than once, then?

7 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: More than once, yes.

8 THE COURT: On any of those times was he ever taken
9 to a precincts or arrested?

10 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

11 THE COURT: He was just stopped and released?

12 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

13 THE COURT: And again, anything about that that you
14 think would affect your ability to be fair and impartial?

15 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

16 THE COURT: You had an older brother, who is 17 deceased now, who had been in prison at some point. Do you
18 know any of the details as to what happened to him or his 19 case?

20 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't necessarily know the 21 details. I know it was probably drug-related.

22 THE COURT: What makes you say that?

23 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Because he had a problem.

24 THE COURT: Okay. You heard me mention, of course,
25 that this case does involve allegations of distribution of

1 drugs and so on. Is there anything about what happened with
2 your brother or any other experiences that you or your family
3 members may have had that you think would affect your ability
4 to be fair and impartial here?

5 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I keep thinking about that.
6 I'm not sure.

7 THE COURT: What do you think makes you hesitate? I
8 don't want to be -- I don't want to judge before I hear all
9 the evidence.

10 I mean, we're going to be asking the jury not -- let 11 me put it this way: One of the things that I tell the jury
12 every time that we break -- to the point where, by the end of 13 the case, the jury can recite these instructions back to me
14 verbatim -- one of the things that I tell all of the jurors is 15 that you have to keep an open mind and not make a decision
16 about the case until such time as all of the evidence has been 17 presented and the jury has heard my instructions on the law
18 and the jury has had the time to go in and deliberate.

19 So, would you be able to do that, keep an open mind
20 and base your decision just based on the evidence that's 21 presented?

22 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I could try.

23 THE COURT: The lawyers get a little bit nervous
24 when they hear jurors say, I could try. We need some 25 assurance from you all, because we're trying to get to know

1 you in this brief little period of time here, and only you
2 know who you are and what things affect you, obviously; right?

3 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

4 THE COURT: The question is whether there's anything
5 about some of these things that you and your family have gone
6 through that might impact your ability to be impartial here?

7 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't believe that that's
8 the case. I don't believe that what my family has gone
9 through would affect my decision.

10 THE COURT: One of the other instructions that I'm 11 going to give is that the jury has to make whatever decision
12 it makes free from any kind of sympathy or bias or prejudices
13 of any kind. And would you be able to follow that 14 instruction?

15 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

16 THE COURT: You had mentioned about a family member
17 having issues with drugs. That was your brother that you were 18 talking about?

19 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

20 THE COURT: Thank you very much.

21 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Thank you.

22 THE COURT: Juror No. 24.

23 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Good morning.

24 THE COURT: Good morning.

25 You're a self-employed computer programmer?

1 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Correct.

2 THE COURT: And you mentioned a financial hardship.
3 I understand your wife is working?

4 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: She's a nurse part time.

5 THE COURT: Part-time?

6 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

7 THE COURT: Tell me a little bit about your job.
8 What is it that you do?

9 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I work for different banks.
10 I write code for trading desks, usually via Microsoft Excel
11 and other database-type software, so they can trade, price
12 stocks and automate their tasks.

13 THE COURT: So, we're not going to be sitting on 14 Fridays. Is that something that you could do on Fridays or 15 even over the weekend?

16 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It's usually during trading
17 hours, Monday through Friday, that I am at the trading desk.

18 THE COURT: You actually physically go to --

19 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes. I work side by side
20 with the traders.

21 THE COURT: And you do this every day?

22 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

23 THE COURT: So, how is it that you -- how do you
24 work out your salary arrangements with your customers?

25 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes. What we do, there's an

1 intermediary firm that charges a rate for me, and then they
2 take a piece off that rate, and I get the rest. So, it's --
3 they charge $100 an hour, they keep 20, I get the 80.

4 THE COURT: So, what happens if you can't work?

5 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't get paid. Like last
6 year, I worked for Chase full-time, and it would absolutely
7 have been not a problem, because Chase would have paid. But 8 in this situation, no.

9 THE COURT: Thank you.

10 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: You are welcome.

11 THE COURT: Juror No. 27, good morning.

12 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Good morning.

13 THE COURT: You mentioned that you had taken the 911
14 dispatcher exam?

15 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

16 THE COURT: Did you hear back from them at all?

17 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I did hear the results, only 18 oral.

19 THE COURT: How long ago did you take the test?

20 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: About a year now.

21 THE COURT: You mentioned that you haven't been 22 working since 2011. Were you employed before that?

23 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

24 THE COURT: What were you doing before that?

25 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I worked at a litigation

1 company for about a year.

2 THE COURT: What do you mean by a "litigation
3 company"?

4 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Pretty much what I had to do
5 was, we would receive documents from companies and we would
6 clean them up, like basically what you see in document
7 recovery. We had to prepare these documents if they had to go
8 to court or whatever. We would just fix the documents.

9 THE COURT: You were basically preparing documents
10 for litigation?

11 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

12 THE COURT: This is like an outsourced company,
13 basically?

14 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I believe so.

15 THE COURT: So, like the law firms would send the 16 documents to you all, and then you would prepare them for 17 court?

18 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

19 THE COURT: Do you know if any of them were for 20 criminal cases?

21 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

22 THE COURT: Did you work before that?

23 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Before that, I was in 24 school, and so I did a work/study job.

25 THE COURT: What did you do for work/study?

1           THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I kept logs of the students'
2 attendance.

3           THE COURT: So, you had an experience where you were
4 with somebody who had some marijuana on them, and you wound up
5 getting scooped up in all that?

6           THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

7           THE COURT: Did you wind up having to go to jail for
8 that?

9           THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

10          THE COURT: What happened to your case?

11          THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: In the morning -- I spent
12 the night there, and in the morning, when I went to the judge,
13 they told me not to get into any kind of trouble for a year
14 and that it would be removed from my record.

15          THE COURT: It would be dismissed?

16          THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

17          THE COURT: It was adjourned in contemplation of 18 dismissal?

19          THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm sorry?

20          THE COURT: Adjourned in contemplation of dismissal?
21 Does that sound familiar?

22          THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It was about almost nine
23 years ago.

24          THE COURT: It was like nine years ago. Okay.

25          As far as you know, that had been dismissed?

1 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right.

2 THE COURT: Is there anything about that experience
3 -- did your friend wind up going to jail?

4 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

5 THE COURT: Did they give her the same treatment
6 that you got?

7 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

8 THE COURT: She really went to jail for more time?

9 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

10 THE COURT: Is there anything about that experience
11 that you think would affect your ability to be fair and
12 impartial here?

13 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

14 THE COURT: What about the testimony of police
15 officers? You heard me mention that their testimony should be 16 evaluated the same way as anybody else. In other words, you
17 shouldn't believe them more or believe them less because they 18 are police officers. Would you be able to follow that 19 instruction?

20 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

21 THE COURT: I want to talk to counsel.

22 And we'll ask you to come up also, Juror No. 27.

24

25 THE COURT: Hi. You mentioned that you had monthly

1 doctors' visits, and you were so gracious enough to say that
2 you were going to try and reschedule them. Is there anything
3 that -- are you going to be able to reschedule your visits?

4 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Because you said we won't be
5 meeting on Fridays. I can always get a Friday appointment,
6 and that won't be an issue.

7 THE COURT: I'm sorry that I have to ask these 8 questions, because we really don't want to pry. Obviously, we 9 also want to be able to accommodate any situation that a
10 potential juror may have. Is there anything about your 11 condition that would affect your ability to sit, especially 12 for a long trial like this, where we may go into the middle of 13 August?

14 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. I have medication that 15 controls, so I'm able to get about.

16 THE COURT: Is that medication that has to be 17 refrigerated or anything like that?

18 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

19 THE COURT: You also mentioned that you had gone to 20 school with Destiny Robinson. How long ago was that?

21 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: We were in elementary school
22 from first grade up until eight grade.

23 THE COURT: Have you seen Destiny Robinson since
24 that.

25 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I have not seen her

1 physically. We are friends on FaceBook. There hasn't been
2 any meetings between us.

3 THE COURT: If you were to serve on this jury, would
4 you be able to stay off FaceBook?

5 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes. We're not like the 6 closest of friends, anyhow.

7 THE COURT: You also mentioned that you had a good
8 friend who was shot and died about two years ago?

9 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

10 THE COURT: Was the person who did that or persons
11 who did that ever arrested?

12 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Through FaceBook, I had seen
13 that the person was apprehended. And as far as what happened
14 with that, I don't have any -- I don't have any knowledge.

15 THE COURT: Do you have any feelings at all about
16 the way that that case was handled?

17 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I actually don't know. I
18 didn't find out about it until it had already been -- this was 19 like eight months later.

20 THE COURT: Is there anything about what happened to 21 your friend that you think would affect your ability to be 22 fair and impartial here? A couple of charges are murder and 23 murder for hire.

24 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

25 THE COURT: Are you familiar with the locations that

1 were mentioned here? These are around the Bushwick area of
2 Brooklyn, Marcus Garvey boulevard in Brooklyn?

3 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I used to live close by the
4 elementary school, but I have not lived there for fifteen
5 years.

6 THE COURT: All right.

7 MR. AMATRUDA: Judge, if I might, could we perhaps 8 have the potential juror just step aside for one moment, so we
9 can discuss a potential question that we may want to ask? I
10 think it makes sense to discuss it outside of her presence for 11 now.

12 THE COURT: Let me ask you to stand over by where 13 that computer screen is.

14 MR. AMATRUDA: Judge, here is the issue I have, is 15 that Destiny Robinson used to date one of the cooperating
16 witnesses, and in addition is in contact with Shawn Taylor
17 pretty regularly. So, I think it makes sense to inquire into
18 the FaceBook issue, because somebody who gets on FaceBook --

19 THE COURT: Why don't you ask the questions. I'm 20 not familiar with the facts of the case.

21 MR. AMATRUDA: That's fine. I wanted to raise it
22 first, so I didn't start going off the reservation with her.

23 THE COURT: Okay.

24 I'm going to let the lawyers ask some more specific 25 questions.

1 MR. AMATRUDA: Thank you, your Honor.

2 As far as Ms. Robinson goes, does she post things on
3 FaceBook about like people she might be dating or do you see
4 postings from her about issues that are going on in her life,
5 anything like that?

6 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. Her posts are all about
7 her son, the two-year-old son. That is really her life right
8 now.

9 MR. AMATRUDA: Do you guys actually communicate on 10 FaceBook, or you are mostly on each other's friend lists?

11 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes. She may like one of my 12 pictures. Her son graduated. I would like her post about her
13 son's graduation. There's no in-detail conversation about
14 anything.

15 MS. FARHADIAN: Through FaceBook, are you aware of 16 who her boyfriends are?

17 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm not aware that she's in 18 a relationship, not even her child's father.

19 MS. FARHADIAN: Do you know who her child's father
20 is?

21 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I have not seen her since
22 the eighth grade.

23 MR. AMATRUDA: One other question. How about back
24 in 2010, do you remember if you ever saw anything about her
25 postings about anybody she was seeing or dating or anything

1 like that?

2 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: When she announced she was
3 pregnant, I remember she mentioned somebody named Malik Rainer
4 who may be the father of her child. I've never seen him. I
5 don't know anything else about him. We are also not friends
6 on FaceBook or anything else.

7 MR. AMATRUDA: Thank you.

8 MS. FARHADIAN: I have one more question.

9 Through her FaceBook page --

10 MR. ROYCE: Judge, who is this coming in the 11 courtroom?

12 MR. RINALDO: I think Christie knows about it.

13 MS. FARHADIAN: My understanding of FaceBook is,
14 sometimes when friends with someone, you can see their friends
15 when they give you access. Not everyone does that.

16 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right.

17 MS. FARHADIAN: Do you happen to know if you are 18 able to see Ms. Robinson's friends through FaceBook?

19 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I can't say that I know. I
20 wouldn't look through her friends list. I'm not sure if it's 21 available for everybody to see. You can always unfriend a
22 person if you don't want to speak. I can do that and not 23 communicate with her at all for the duration of the case or 24 anything like that.

25 MS. FARHADIAN: Thank you.

1 THE COURT: Thank you very much.

2 Before the lawyers break up, I see that a few of the
3 jurors have been getting up and been taking some leisure
4 breaks, so I'm just going to ask them to remember where they
5 are sitting, and I'm going to give them like a ten-minute
6 nature break.

7 MR. RINALDO: One thing we're going to mention right
8 now from the defense side: We have a witness who arrived here
9 who we subpoenaed. We just want to talk to him briefly.
10 Obviously, we had to subpoena him for the trial date. We're 11 going to need you to advise him he remains under subpoena and 12 on call, and then you can release him.

13 MR. ROYCE: He's sitting outside now.

14 THE COURT: All right.

15 Let me have the jurors have their break, and bring
16 him in right away. I happen to have somebody upstairs, too.
17 I did see there are four or five jurors who have been getting 18 up.

1 (In open court.)

2 THE COURT: Okay. Ladies and gentlemen, so we are
3 going to take a little bit of a break now because I see some
4 people are feeling a little bit restless and maybe you need a
5 little nature break. Okay? So I am going -- that clock
6 actually has been corrected. We have a problem with that
7 clock. It never has the right time, but I am going to ask you
8 to come back here in about ten minutes. We do have rest rooms
9 out here. There's a men's room and a ladies' room. Remember
10 where you are sitting, okay, because when you come back, we 11 are going to ask you to sit in the same seats.

12 All right. So just wait outside and we will call
13 you to come back inside when we are ready for you, but,
14 remember -- wait a minute. I told you I was going to tell all
15 of you this, right? When you take this break, you can't talk
16 about the jury selection process or -- you do not know
17 anything really about the case at this point. You can't talk
18 about the case, can't look at or listen to or do any kind of 19 research over any kind of media that you may have access to.

20 All right. So I will give you 15 minutes. Let's 21 come back here at about 11:40. All right? Okay. And just 22 remember where you are sitting because that is where you are 23 going to sit. Come back into the courtroom at 11:40 just to 24 be clear. Okay?

25 (Prospective jurors exit.)

1 THE COURT: For the record, all of the jurors are
2 outside of the courtroom. You can have a seat.

3 You want to go get your witness?

4 MR. RUSSELL: Your Honor, both Mr. Taylor and
5 Mr. Pinkney need to go to the restroom, but we can do that 6 after. I just wanted to let the Court know.

7 THE COURT: Yes. What I don't want is to have the 8 witness coming in when the jurors are coming in.

9 (Pause.)

10 THE COURT: Come to order. We are back on the 11 record.

12 As I said, the jurors are not present. Defense
13 counsel, you have an application?

14 MR. RINALDO: Judge, we had subpoenaed a witness.
15 Obviously the date we used on the subpoena was the date of the 16 beginning of jury selection. The witness is here, Mr. Jason
17 Diaz. He honored the subpoena. Obviously, Judge, we don't 18 need him today, but we would like the Court to advise him just 19 really in terms of his obligations, that he's still under 20 subpoena, remains under subpoena, and just to keep himself
21 available if we do intend to call him.

22 THE COURT: Mr. Diaz, hi, good morning, sir.

23 MR. DIAZ: Good morning.

24 THE COURT: I am Judge Irizarry and I am presiding
25 over this case and I just want to make sure that you

1 understand what Mr. Rinaldo has said.

2           You have been requested to appear as a witness in
3 this case and we are just in the beginning of the trial, so I
4 cannot tell you for sure what day it is that we will need you,
5 but you do have to remain available to testify at this trial
6 assuming that the defense still wishes to call you. Okay?
7 That's ultimately a decision that the defense attorneys are 8 going to make, but they need to be able to reach you and 9 communicate with you and you will need to appear here on 10 whatever day it is that it is requested. Okay?

11           MR. DIAZ: Yes, Your Honor.

12           THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

13           MR. RINALDO: Thank you, Judge.

14           THE COURT: Thank you.

15           Thank you, sir.

16           MR. RINALDO: Thank you, Judge.

17           (Recess taken.)

18           (In open court.)

19           THE COURT: This is a case on trial continued. All
20 the parties are present.

21           Do the parties agree that all of our prospective
22 jurors are present and properly seated?

23           MR. AMATRUDA: Yes, Your Honor.

24           MR. RUSSELL: Yes.

25           MR. RINALDO: Yes.

1 THE COURT: Okay. Welcome back, ladies and
2 gentlemen. Just a couple of things and I apologize because I
3 should have mentioned this to you before.

4 I have instructed the parties that they are not to 5 have any kind of communication at all with any of the 6 prospective jurors. That means even something as simple and 7 as civilized as a hello or a good morning or a good afternoon
8 and I am going to ask you all to do the same thing, not to 9 have any kind of discussion, even something as simple as a
10 greeting to any of the parties that are here or any of the 11 court staff and that's because jury selection is a bit of a
12 complicated process and we want to make sure that we get a
13 jury, that it is fair and impartial and this is just another
14 way that we can ensure the impartiality of the jury. It's not 15 that I want to encourage people to be rude or unsociable, but 16 it is just one of the ways that we have to make sure that our 17 jurors remain free from any kind of potential influence.

18 So, I know it kind of cuts against most of the 19 habits that we all have, but please don't speak to any of 20 them. They are not going to speak to any of you. That will 21 go for witnesses too if you are chosen to serve on the jury.
22 That will go for any of the prospective witnesses as well.

23 All right. So I hope everybody is all put together
24 again and had a chance to stretch a little bit and we are 25 going to continue to move forward and we are up to our juror

1 number 35.

2           You had left the question about education blank and
3 we were just wondering what, whether you with went to school
4 and what's the highest grade that you completed in school for 5 Juror Number 35.

6           I'm sorry? I can't hear you.

7           THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: One year of college.

8           THE COURT: You got one year of college?

9           THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

10          THE COURT: Okay. And you mentioned that you have a
11 son who is a corrections officer.

12          THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

13          THE COURT: Do you ever get to talk to your son
14 about the work that he does?

15          THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

16          THE COURT: Do you get to see your son fairly
17 frequently?

18          THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

19          THE COURT: And is there anything at all about the 20 work that your son does that you think would affect your 21 ability to be fair and impartial here?

22          THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

23          THE COURT: And you also told us that you had been a
24 victim of some violence sometime ago, correct?

25          THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

Prospective Juror No. 35

59

1 THE COURT: Okay. And did you ever report those
2 incidents to the police?

3 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

4 THE COURT: And how do you feel about the way that
5 they responded in those situations?

6 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: In a fair way.

7 THE COURT: And was the person ever arrested?

8 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

9 THE COURT: And did you have to go to court and 10 testify?

11 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

12 THE COURT: And ultimately, was the person convicted
13 for what was done to you?

14 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

15 THE COURT: And how do you feel about the way that
16 the criminal justice system responded to your situation?

17 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: To my satisfaction.

18 THE COURT: Okay. Is there anything about the 19 experiences that you had with that situation that you think
20 would affect your ability to be fair and impartial?

21 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

22 THE COURT: You mentioned also that the daughter of 23 a friend of yours was stabbed.

24 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

25 THE COURT: Did the daughter survive?

5 person, yes.

6 THE COURT: Do you know whether that person ever got 7 sent to prison or went to trial or anything like that?

8 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I, I don't know about the 9 process, what status is now, but that was the recent situation
10 of the two kids that were stabbed in the elevator.

11 THE COURT: Oh, okay. That was just, what, a month
12 ago, something like that?

13 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

14 THE COURT: I see. And were you a witness at all to 15 anything that happened in that situation?

16 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

17 THE COURT: And are you very close to that friend?

18 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Somewhat.

19 THE COURT: Okay.

20 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: She's a neighbor.

21 THE COURT: She's a neighbor. All right. And is 22 there anything at all about what happened to her and the 23 daughter, and obviously there was another child that was 24 involved, anything about that that you think would affect your

2 THE COURT: Anything at all about the nature of the

4 fair and impartial?

5 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

6 THE COURT: And you also told us that you had a
7 brother who was sent to prison, correct?

8 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

9 THE COURT: And how long ago was that?

10 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: That was 30, 40 years ago.

11 THE COURT: Oh, a long time ago.

12 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: He's since passed.

13 THE COURT: He's passed since then?

14 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

15 THE COURT: And do you recall anything at all about 16 his case and what it was about?

17 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. No.

18 THE COURT: Do you know whether it involved drugs or 19 anything like that?

20 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Drug related, yes.

21 THE COURT: It was drug related. And is the fact
22 that there are drug related charges here, would that affect 23 you in any way to be fair and impartial?

24 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

25 THE COURT: And you also mentioned that you had been

2 happened?

3 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It was dismissed provided I
4 stayed out of trouble for six months.

5 THE COURT: Okay. Was it like a neighborhood
6 situation, something like that?

7 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes. It was -- my landlord
8 harassed me, coming into the apartment, claiming he needed to 9 fix something when he gained entry. It was sexual harassment.

10 THE COURT: I see. Okay. How do you feel about the 11 way you were treated in that situation?

12 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Fair.

13 THE COURT: Okay. Anything at all about that that
14 you think would affect your ability to be fair and impartial?

15 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

16 THE COURT: There was a question, if you remember in 17 the questionnaire, there were some questions about whether you
18 had any experiences relating to gang activity in the 19 neighborhood, just sort of generally, you know, from being in 20 the neighborhood. You said something about living around or 21 within the same area but I wasn't sure what you meant.

22 Can you just explain? Do you mean the same area
23 where this case took place or --

24 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, not this case. Just 25 basic knowledge of their presence.

3 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes. Yes.

4 THE COURT: I see.

5 And you mentioned that you yourself had -- you're in 6 recovery yourself, right?

7 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

8 THE COURT: Forty years ago?

9 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Forty-two years.

10 THE COURT: Good bless you.

11 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Thank you.

12 THE COURT: And you mentioned that you had an issue
13 with heroin at the time?

14 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, heroin and cocaine.

15 THE COURT: And you heard me mention that some of 16 the charges here may also involve cocaine and heroin?

17 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

18 THE COURT: And charges of distribution?

19 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

20 THE COURT: And also some homicides related to that
21 business.

22 Is there anything at all about that and the 23 experiences that you may have had 40 years, 42 years ago that
24 you think would affect your ability to be fair and impartial
25 here?

1 THE COURT: Juror 36, good morning.

2 You told us that your home was burglarized at some
3 point. Were you home when that happened?

4 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

5 THE COURT: Was anybody in your family home when
6 that happened?

7 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm sorry. On one occasion,
8 everyone was asleep. They broke into the garage, took some 9 things and went out.

10 THE COURT: Okay. But no one was in the home proper
11 where it actually happened?

12 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

13 THE COURT: I see.

14 Was anyone ever arrested as a result?

15 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

16 THE COURT: First of all, did you report it to the 17 police?

18 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

19 THE COURT: Okay. How do you feel about the way
20 that the law enforcement responded?

21 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Not much you could do, I
22 guess, in a situation like that.

23 THE COURT: Okay. Is there anything about that that
24 you think would affect your ability to be fair and impartial
25 here?

1 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

2 THE COURT: You also mentioned that you testified in
3 a case concerning a guardianship.

4 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

5 THE COURT: That was in state court?

6 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

7 THE COURT: Okay. Were you grilled by the 8 attorneys?

9 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

10 Actually, I was replacement guardian for that 11 individual. I testified for the previous guardian.

12 THE COURT: Okay. I see.

13 Are you still in that capacity as a guardian?

14 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: My ward is diseased now as 15 of April 2nd.

16 THE COURT: Okay. Is that something that you have 17 done on other occasions, serve as a guardian?

18 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, just this once.

19 THE COURT: Was that for a family member?

20 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No; a close friend.

21 THE COURT: Close friend.

22 All right. Having had the experience -- when you
23 testified, was that in a courtroom proceeding?

24 Was there a judge there?

25 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: There was a judge and a

1 handful of people.

2 THE COURT: Not in a situation where there was a
3 jury and all of that?

4 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

5 THE COURT: Okay. But you were asked questions by 6 lawyers, right?

7 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

8 THE COURT: Okay. Of course, there are going to be 9 witnesses who are going to come and testify and they are going
10 to be questioned by the lawyers and sometimes the questioning
11 can get a little stern and a little heated.

12 Is there anything about the experience that you had,
13 having been a witness, that you think might make you feel a 14 little bit more sympathetic towards someone who is in that 15 situation?

16 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Not really.

17 THE COURT: Okay. You would be able to assess their 18 testimony the same as you would anybody else, just based on 19 what they say and how they say it? Obviously, you could take 20 into account their demeanor, right?

21 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

22 THE COURT: Okay. You did raise a concern, and some 23 of the other jurors raised a similar concern, so for those of 24 you who raised that concern, I am going to address it now.

25 A few of put down that you could not sit on a case

1 where there was a death penalty on the table. This is not a
2 death penalty case. So for any of you who had that concern,
3 this is not a death penalty case, so you could just forget
4 about that.

5 Having heard that, would you be able to sit on this
6 case as a fair and impartial juror.

7 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I believe so.

8 THE COURT: Number 36?

9 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

10 THE COURT: Okay. Again, I remind you all, as I
11 said a little bit earlier today, that a jury has to render its 12 verdict free from any kind of sympathy or bias or any kind of 13 prejudices that you may have about anything at all.

14 Among the things that the jury cannot consider is 15 the question of punishment because if there is going to be any 16 punishment, assuming that the government has sustained its 17 burden of proof beyond a reasonable doubt, the jury
18 unanimously decides that the government has done that, then
19 punishment is going to be up to the Court alone.

20 Is there anyone who would have any problem at all 21 sitting on this case without thinking about questions of 22 punishment?

23 If I could see by a show of hands?

24 Okay. So we are all clear, that there is no death
25 penalty so you don't need to worry about that. Some of you

1 did raise that as a concern.

2 You also mentioned that you had -- let me actually
3 speak to you together with counsel here on the side.

4 (Side bar.)

5 If you can step up, please, sir.

6 You had also mentioned that you had spoken to a
7 Detective Ryan concerning a fatal collision somewhere in the 8 neighborhood, I guess?

9 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

10 THE COURT: Did you know what the first name of that 11 detective was?

12 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Actually, I don't.

13 He left a card on my door, is what happened. I had 14 a security camera that was pointing at that corner and he 15 asked me did the camera record anything. I looked over the 16 tape and said I didn't see anything on it.

17 THE COURT: I see. Okay.

18 Do you have a first name for Detective Ryan?
19 Because it is not on the schedule that was given to the jury.

20 MR. AMATRUDA: If I can just ask the agent? I think 21 he might have it. Excuse me.

22 THE COURT: Okay.

23 (Pause.)

24 I'm sure there are many Detective Ryans in the 25 police force.

1 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Maybe there aren't.

2 (Pause continues.)

3 MR. AMATRUDA: It's William or Billy.

4 THE COURT: William or Billy Ryan?

5 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Doesn't ring a bell. Didn't
6 mention a first name.

7 THE COURT: Without giving us the specific address,
8 what borough was this?

9 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Brooklyn.

10 THE COURT: It was in Brooklyn.

11 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I spoke to him on the phone.
12 I didn't meet with him personally. He asked me a few
13 questions and that was all.

14 THE COURT: Is there anything -- well, let's assume,
15 for example, at the outside chance, you get on this jury and 16 Detective Ryan does come in and take the stand, would you be 17 able to set aside whatever experience you may have had 18 speaking to him on the phone and listen to his testimony just 19 based on what comes from the witness stand?

20 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It wasn't much of an 21 experience, honestly.

22 THE COURT: You also mentioned that you had some 23 personal experience with a close member or family member or 24 close friend with alcoholism.

25 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

1 THE COURT: Is that person in recovery?

2 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. Actually, it's a friend
3 of mine in Massachusetts. I dealt with him a number of times
4 and couldn't take the alcoholism. I had to just kind of leave
5 him.

6 THE COURT: Is there anything about that experience
7 that you think would affect your ability to be fair and
8 impartial here?

9 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm just trying to think of 10 it in what capacity. Other than obvious pretty tough to deal
11 with alcohol, they need treatment like everyone else. As far
12 as impartiality, I am not sure what you mean.

13 THE COURT: I guess the reason why I ask about that 14 is because alcoholism is an addiction and this is a drug case
15 and people addicted to drugs.

16 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Absolutely.

17 THE COURT: It's an illness, alcoholism and drug
18 addiction, regardless of what the substance is, it is pretty
19 much the same kind of a thing. That's why I am asking that.
20 Because it may be an easy thing to sort of transfer a feeling
21 about alcoholism to drug addiction.

22 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

23 THE COURT: And the charges here do involve
24 distribution so that's why I am asking you, whether you think
25 anything about that might affect the nature of the charges,

1 basically, given the experience you had with your friend?

2 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I will do the best I can. I
3 am thinking in terms of a person who is addicted, not -- I'm
4 trying to think of how to put this. If somebody is addicted,
5 it's like either they want the help or they don't. If they
6 don't want the help, there is nothing you can do for them.

7 THE COURT: I guess the other way is that, to put it
8 a different way, the defendants are accused of distributing
9 drugs or selling drugs. There may be people who have a
10 feeling that you know what, my friend or someone close to me
11 is addicted because somebody sold them this stuff. This is 12 not the place to seek retribution for whatever may have 13 happened to a friend or to a loved one or to make a political 14 statement.

15 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I understand.

16 THE COURT: And just to assess the case on the 17 facts.

18 Would you be able to do that?

19 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, I can do that.

20 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

21 Have a seat.

22 (Juror leaves side bar.)

23 MR. RINALDO: Judge, I think this is important to 24 put this on the record.

25 I don't know who was in the courtroom. Carl and I

1 were in the courtroom when the jurors were asked to leave and
2 we came back in. The defendants were here and juror number 20
3 was -- somehow wandered back in at his seat.

4 What happened, as we noticed that he was there,
5 Christy I think got up quickly to address that issue. But the 6 marshals were just then getting up in the process of taking 7 the defendant, opening the door and bringing them out. He was 8 watching that. We saw him do that.

9 So at this point I -- certainly you could question
10 him but at this point I am concerned that as --

11 THE COURT: I think he has two problems. He's got a
12 language problem and he's got the discussion with the wife
13 problem and, frankly, if there was a challenge for cause, even 14 on that ground, I would entertain that. Because I think he's 15 got real problems.

16 MR. RINALDO: I just don't want him tainting -- the 17 possibility of any taint with the rest of the panel in case
18 they --

19 THE COURT: Which is part of the reason why I
20 explained to them that they can't discuss anything that goes
21 on here with anybody else. I just don't want to raise it in a
22 way that affects any of the other jurors. They may not know
23 what that room is.

24 MR. RINALDO: I understand that.

25 My concern is that if -- when we break the next time

1 we break, that there is a possibility of him maybe mentioning
2 something. If he could just -- if we can excuse him sooner
3 rather than later. That's my point.

4 I don't know if anybody else has anything.

5 THE COURT: Once they get excused, they are not
6 going to come back. If you want, we can -- I don't want to 7 take up too much time now. I really would like to go through
8 as many of these people rather than have them come back.

9 MR. AMATRUDA: I think the way that the marshals
10 were bringing the defendants back, they weren't in handcuffs.
11 They just opened the door and they left.

12 THE COURT: That's why I say, bringing more
13 attention to it might make it worse.

14 MR. RINALDO: I don't want to bring attention to it.
15 Just excuse him and let him go home as quickly as possible so
16 that there is no more --

17 THE COURT: I don't want to start excusing people
18 now because people are going to start figuring out the why's
19 and the wherefore's.

20 MS. FARHADIAN: The next person will say, I talked
21 to my wife too.

22 THE COURT: They may think that's the deal. He's 23 got other issues too; the language, more importantly.

24 MR. JASPER: Just very briefly, since we know a
25 little bit about the incident, the lack or lack of experience

1 with this Detective Ryan, can the government find out through
2 Agent McNally by contacting that detective if he has any
3 recollection of --

4 THE COURT: Of investigating some kind of fatal
5 collision? We don't even know how recently that was.

6 MR. JASPER: I just thought it might be worth it.

7 THE COURT: I can ask the juror how recent it was.

8 MR. AMATRUDA: I think what's important about that,
9 and we can discuss this later, but I think what's important
10 about that is he doesn't really remember having much
11 interaction with him. He left a card and they had a phone
12 call. It doesn't seem like even if he recalls the incident,
13 which I don't think he will, he's retired.

14 THE COURT: I can just ask him to put it into some 15 sort of timeframe and then the government can go back and ask
16 the detective.

17 MR. JASPER: Thank you, Judge.

18 THE COURT: Because we are not going to exercise
19 peremptories today. That will be done tomorrow morning.

20 (In open court.)

21 THE COURT: Juror 36, if I could just ask a quick
22 follow up question.

23 With respect to the collision that the inquiry was 24 made about, how long ago was that?

25 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Oh, a month maybe, two

1 months.

2 THE COURT: A month or two ago?

3 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

4 THE COURT: Thank you.

5 Juror number 39, good morning. No. Good afternoon
6 now.

7 You have a niece who has been an attorney for New
8 York State for eight years.

9 Is that as a court attorney or for a judge, do you
10 know, without telling us any specifics?

11 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: She works for or she
12 previously worked for a law firm in Manhattan, doing
13 bankruptcy type law.

14 THE COURT: All right. Now she is working for the 15 courts?

16 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Now she is working in -- at 17 a college.

18 THE COURT: Okay. She is teaching?

19 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: She is a rector at a
20 residential hall.

21 THE COURT: Okay. You got attacked a couple of 22 times in college and then in your workplace and is 23 there -- what happened in those cases?

24 Did the police get called in?

25 Were the persons arrested.

1           THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: In those two cases the
2 police got called in.

3           THE COURT: Were the perpetrators arrested?

4           THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: In the first instance, no.
5 In the second instance, yes.

6           THE COURT: I think in connection with the second
7 one you said that you had been expecting to be called as a
8 witness but did you ever get to testify?

9           THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I was subpoenaed as a
10 witness. I showed for the trial. Unfortunately, the 11 defendant did not and then there was some discussion between 12 the judges and the attorneys and the charges were dismissed.

13           THE COURT: Okay. How do you feel about these 14 experiences that you had, very different experiences in each
15 case?

16           THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, in the first instance,
17 I thought that the -- what was done was all that could be 18 done. In the second case, I thought much more could have been 19 done.

20           THE COURT: Is there anything at all about either of 21 those two experiences that you think would affect your ability
22 to be fair and impartial here?

23           THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It is hard to say.

24           THE COURT: Well, we can't know what is going on in 25 your mind. So that's why we ask you these questions.

1           The question is whether there is any kind of -- is
2   there anything about, particularly I guess the second
3   experience, where there was someone who was found and charges
4   brought and then ultimately it fizzled, right, into nothing,
5   whether that is something that might affect your ability to be 6   fair and impartial to the government or to police officers or 7   to the defendants?

8           THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: In the present case, no.

9           THE COURT: So would you be able to asses this case
10   just on the facts that are presented here?

11          THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I think so.

12          THE COURT: Okay. Without thinking about what 13   happened to you?

14          THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

15          THE COURT: You never got to testify in a grand jury
16   or anything like that?

17          THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

18          THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

19          Juror number 41, good afternoon.

20          You had a nephew who applied, I guess, to the police
21   department?

22          THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

23          THE COURT: Do you know anything about the results
24   of that application.

25          THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: He's just waiting.

1 THE COURT: He's just waiting. Okay.

2 You have a lot of stuff happen to you when you were
3 in Arizona.

4 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

5 THE COURT: I am assuming all those -- you had your
6 car stolen a few times, your home was invaded a few times.

7 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Twenty years, when --

8 MR. HERMAN: Can't hear.

9 THE COURT: We need for you to speak a little bit
10 louder.

11 You said 20 years what?

12 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I moved back to New York in 13 '96. After I wrote that down, you know, and I had forgotten,
14 I -- I lived in the middle of a gang neighborhood at the time.
15 I mean, it was constant. I got robbed constantly.

16 THE COURT: That kind of brings up one of the other
17 questions that you responded to. You mentioned that you were 18 living in a neighborhood where there was a lot of gang
19 activity.

20 Is there anything at all about that experience -- I
21 know it has been almost 20 years -- that you think would 22 affect your ability to be fair and impartial here?

23 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

24 (Continued on next page.)
25

1           THE COURT: And you had a stepson that was involved
2 with the Hell's Angels. I have not heard that term in a long
3 time.

4           THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

5           THE COURT: For selling drugs; for selling drugs,
6 you said?

7           THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

8           THE COURT: Do you know anything at all about his 9 case, the specifics of that?

10          THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: When I married my husband,
11 he was fourteen. I knew him as a child.

12          THE COURT: And then something happened when he got 13 older?

14          THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: He was good.

15          THE COURT: Anything that happened to him that would
16 affect your ability to be fair and impartial?

17          THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I think he should have went 18 to jail for what he did.

19          THE COURT: I think you mentioned that you'd seen
20 life from both sides?

21          THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: When I got robbed, I was in
22 the house. The police unit was there. They had a stakeout.
23 I was pregnant. My child was a baby. I kept telling my 24 husband, I hear noise upstairs. So, he went out in the 25 backyard, finally, and the door opened, and it was like a big

1 door, and the cops went, Who are you?, and they could have
2 shot him. At the time, I was young and I was just shocked.
3 Years later, you think, What the heck? Luckily, we were not
4 gun people, because a lot of people in Arizona had guns.

5 THE COURT: Right.

6 So --

7 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: They were nice policemen.

8 THE COURT: So, your husband explained that he lived
9 there?

10 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It was my neighbor that did
11 it, my next-door neighbor.

12 THE COURT: Were charges brought against your 13 neighbor?

14 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Against the person that 15 robbed us?

16 THE COURT: Yes.

17 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes. They arrested him.
18 They caught him.

19 THE COURT: They caught him. Okay.

20 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: In my backyard.

21 THE COURT: I'm sorry?

22 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: They caught him in my 23 backyard.

24 THE COURT: Okay. Overall, is there anything about 25 all these experiences that you had that you think would affect

1 your ability to be fair and impartial?

2 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. I feel like I've seen
3 both sides.

4 THE COURT: You've been both a victim, and you have
5 also been confronted by the police to a certain degree?

6 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right.

7 THE COURT: And you heard my statement about the 8 fact that there is no death penalty here?

9 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

10 THE COURT: So, you don't need to be concerned about 11 that. I just wanted to follow up.

12 You had a grandson who was supposed to visit?

13 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: He's not going to come.

14 THE COURT: He's not going to come. Okay.

15 And you mentioned something about, just sort of 16 there was a general question asking people about any 17 experiences that they may have had with people who have used
18 drugs or things like that, and you mentioned that you know
19 what drugs and alcohol can do, I guess the effects that that 20 can have?

21 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

22 THE COURT: And you've heard me mention that the 23 charges here do involve drug distribution. Is there anything
24 at all about the charges that you think would affect your
25 ability to be fair and impartial?

1 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

2 THE COURT: Thank you.

3 Juror No. 43. You have an uncle and some friends
4 who are attorneys. Without giving us their names or the names
5 of the firms or agencies that they may work with, do any of 6 them do any criminal law practice?

7 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

8 THE COURT: Do any of them talk with you about their
9 practice?

10 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

11 THE COURT: Do they do prosecution or defense work?

12 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I think my uncle does more
13 -- I think his focus is more real estate and other things like
14 that. But I think periodically, something happens.

15 THE COURT: Like maybe for a client?

16 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes. But it's not his 17 normal practice.

18 THE COURT: And you mentioned that your husband was 19 robbed a couple of times. Could you tell us a little bit more
20 about that?

21 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I think one time, coming out
22 of work, someone came with a gun and took his wallet. And 23 then I think one time in front of our house, somebody -- the 24 same sort of thing happened. But he was never hurt.

25 THE COURT: Was it reported to the police?

1 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, it was.

2 THE COURT: Was anyone ever arrested?

3 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't believe so.

4 THE COURT: How do you feel about the way that law
5 enforcement responded to both of those situations?

6 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I think he felt it was 7 appropriate.

8 THE COURT: Is there anything about those 9 experiences that you think would affect your ability to be
10 fair and impartial?

11 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

12 THE COURT: You mentioned that you know some people
13 who smoke pot. That's probably true for most people in the 14 United States, depending on what generation you are from. Is 15 there anything about that that you think would affect your
16 ability to be fair and impartial?

17 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

18 THE COURT: Have any of them ever actually been 19 arrested as a result?

20 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

21 THE COURT: You did mention, in connection -- there
22 was a question -- for the lawyers, it's number 49 -- and the 23 question was that the evidence in this case may include
24 information provided or obtained by individuals who 25 participated in some of the crimes charged in the indictment.

1 These witnesses have pled guilty and are testifying pursuant
2 to cooperation agreements with the government in the hope that
3 their own sentences will be reduced. It is permissible for 4 the government to present such witnesses before a jury to rely
5 on their testimony in reaching a verdict.

6 And then the question is: Do you have any beliefs
7 or opinions that would affect your ability to evaluate
8 testimony from such witnesses fairly and impartially? You
9 said that you might be a little suspect of their testimony, as 10 they are cooperating witnesses.

11 Do you want to elaborate a little bit about that?

12 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I guess if somebody is -- 13 someone is a criminal and they are told if they testify they 14 get off, I don't know -- I don't know if they are encouraged
15 to say something one way or the other, or they just have to 16 tell the truth. I don't know how the whole things work. It
17 sounds a little --

18 THE COURT: It was an unfair question of me to throw
19 it out there like that in a void.

20 Let me put it this way: At the end of the case, I'm 21 going to be giving the jury instructions on the law. Included
22 in those instructions are going to be some guides, if you
23 will, as to how the jury is to assess the testimony of 24 witnesses and other various different kinds of evidence that 25 may get introduced. And right now, your guess is as good as

1 mine. I don't know whether some of it is going to be in
2 documents, you know, hard evidence, like an actual item, or
3 whether it's just going to be testimony or it could be a
4 combination of that.

5 So, I'm going to be giving the jury instructions for 6 some sort of guidepost, if you will, that they could use for 7 assessing the evidence. And so the jury can take into
8 consideration, for example, the demeanor of the witness, you
9 know, how does the witness testify? Does the version of that 10 witness's account of a series of events, does it seem logical?
11 Does it seem consistent? Does it jibe with other evidence
12 that's been presented?

13 And in connection with what are called accomplice
14 witnesses, which is what we're talking about here, the jury
15 will be told that, of course, you have to take certain special
16 care in assessing the testimony of that witness, and as with 17 any other witness, you can take into consideration whether 18 that witness has an outcome -- has an interest in the outcome
19 of the case, and whether or not, the bottom line is, you feel
20 that that witness has testified truthfully, either completely
21 or in part, because you can feel that a witness has testified
22 completely truthfully and accept everything that that witness
23 says, or you might feel that the witness has not testified
24 truthfully and reject everything that that witness says, or 25 you could feel that in some respects the witness has told

1 something that's true and other things that are not true, and
2 you can just reject what you think is not true and accept what
3 you think is true.

4 So, given that instruction, do you think you could
5 follow my instructions and assess the testimony in an
6 open-minded and fair and impartial way?

7 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I could.

8 THE COURT: Yes?

9 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Definitely.

10 THE COURT: You said you need to walk at lunchtime.
11 Can you elaborate a little bit about that? Our jury is going
12 to be kept together during the lunchtime, but we can --
13 certainly, there are -- I myself need to be able to get up and 14 stretch and move a little bit.

15 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I mean, I've had two back
16 surgeries. I couldn't sit for eight hours straight during the 17 day. I don't need to cross the bridge. I need to get up and 18 move.

19 THE COURT: You need to be able to move and so on?

20 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

21 THE COURT: I think that's something that we can
22 accommodate. I have had many jurors who have been in that 23 situation or who have arthritis or things like that, and we
24 will take breaks like we did some morning. We'll take breaks
25 mid-morning, the lunch break, and a break in the afternoon.

1 So, you wouldn't be sitting -- believe me, I couldn't do it,
2 either. I would not be able to stand up afterward. So, we
3 can accommodate that.

4 And I am hopeful -- I know that the 22nd, you have
5 to take your son to college. Is that around the date?

6 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: We have to leave at the very
7 latest on the 25th of August.

8 THE COURT: Okay. I'm hopeful that the case will be 9 done before the 22nd. If not, perhaps that is something that 10 we might be able to accommodate.

11 Would you be coming back the next day?

12 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: We have to be there the 25th
13 -- the 26th and 27th. It's in Ohio. We would have to get 14 there, be there on the 26th and 27th, and then come back.

15 THE COURT: I'm really -- this case should be done
16 before that.

17 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It's my firstborn.

18 THE COURT: Okay. You're having separation
19 anxieties already. Thank you very much.

20 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Thank you.

21 THE COURT: I'm going to ask the lawyers to come up
22 with the reporter.

23 And Juror 47, if you can come up.

24 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Sure.

25 (Sidebar.)

1 THE COURT: Hi.

2 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Hi.

3 THE COURT: I just wanted to follow up. You
4 responded -- there was a question whether you had any opinion
5 about whether or not the defendants are guilty of the crimes
6 charged as they sit here right now, and you said that their
7 body language looks suspicious.

8 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Their body language looks
9 very suspicious. The defendants were very stoic throughout
10 the whole proceedings. When you read the charges, conspiracy
11 to murder, murder, distribution of drugs and everything, they 12 started fidgeting. Maybe they were just shifting in the 13 chair. It seemed very suspicious to me. It did allow me to 14 form a little bit of a bias at that.

15 THE COURT: I mean, people react to -- obviously,
16 this is a serious situation.

17 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right.

18 THE COURT: And people can react to serious
19 situations in different ways. Some people, when they get 20 nervous, they laugh and they can't help it.

21 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Sure.

22 THE COURT: It's the way that they react. It
23 doesn't necessarily mean that they are not taking the 24 situation seriously. Would you be able to, if you were chosen
25 to serve on this case, would you be able to just judge it on

1 the evidence that's presented, and not based on --

2 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I think I could probably 3 base it on the evidence and the testimony and that sort of 4 thing, yes.

5 THE COURT: -- regardless of whether they are
6 sitting and fidgeting or looking one way or the other?
7 Honestly, I don't know how a person is supposed to look when
8 charges like that are being raised. I'm not sure if you have 9 some idea of what you were expecting.

10 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: That's a good question. No.
11 It's like, do I have -- how should an innocent person act?
12 Really, there's no answer. So, I mean, the other thing, I'm 13 listening to testimony, I'm probably going to be watching for 14 body language, I'm going to be very subjective, if the witness
15 is telling the truth. So.

16 THE COURT: Do you have any questions?

17 MR. HERMAN: You told us that you had an opinion --
18 I'm reading your questionnaire.

19 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Okay. I suppose opinion in 20 the context of a bias that was formed. I guess that's kind of 21 what I meant as an opinion.

22 MR. HERMAN: What was your opinion?

23 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: My opinion was that it was 24 suspicious that their body language shifted.

25 MR. HERMAN: We asked you at this point in time, at

1 that point, do you have an opinion about whether any of the 2 defendant are guilty of the crimes charged, and you said, yes.
3 You checked, yes.

4 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I see.

5 MR. HERMAN: We're looking for an honest answer
6 here.

7 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I guess at the time, I did
8 think it was. I guess I did form an opinion at that point.

9 MR. HERMAN: Do you still have that opinion?

10 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: To be honest with you, no.
11 No, I don't, really.

12 THE COURT: Anything else that you would like to 13 ask?

14 MR. AMATRUDA: Thank you.

15 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Thank you. Okay.

16 (In open court.)

17 THE COURT: Juror No. 48.

18 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Hi.

19 THE COURT: Good afternoon. You said that there's a 20 possibility that you might not be available on the week of 21 August 13, but you didn't really tell us what was going on.

22 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It's a work conference based 23 on nothing finalized yet.

24 THE COURT: Is that something that you would have 25 some input on, that you could maybe ask them to put it off

1 until later on in August?

2 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. It's a yearly thing.
3 It is when it is. They didn't decide -- they have not
4 selected a member from our team to attend it.

5 THE COURT: If you were chosen to serve, is there
6 somebody that they could send?

7 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Correct.

8 THE COURT: Okay.

9 You also mentioned you had some problems sitting for 10 a long time. If I give breaks, like I mentioned before, it
11 would be okay?

12 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It should be okay.

13 THE COURT: Thank you.

14 Juror No. 49. Hi.

15 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Hi.

16 THE COURT: You mentioned that you had applied --
17 did you apply for the Police Department, or did you work for 18 the Police Department?

19 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I applied.

20 THE COURT: You applied. When was that?

21 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Probably more than five
22 years ago. When the salary was twenty-four thousand. I'm not 23 sure when that was.

24 THE COURT: I can't help you with that one. I don't 25 know.

1 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Back then.

2 THE COURT: I think it's been a while, then. Okay.

3 And you had a brother who was shot, as well, after a
4 party. Is he okay?

5 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, thank God, yes.

6 THE COURT: And was anybody arrested?

7 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: To my knowledge, no, not
8 yet.

9 THE COURT: How long ago was that?

10 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Four years ago.

11 THE COURT: Four years ago.

12 How do you feel about the way that that was handled
13 by the police?

14 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: The little that I know, I
15 think more should have been done or still should be done.

16 THE COURT: Well, is that something that you think 17 might affect your ability to be fair and impartial here, in 18 particular to evaluate the testimony of the police?

19 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

20 THE COURT: And then you mentioned that you had been
21 arrested and charged with a misdemeanor. What happened with 22 that? What was it? What happened?

23 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I was arrested. I used to 24 work at Macy's on 34th Street, and I was arrested due to 25 credit card fraud. (Continued on next page.)

- Proceedings -

94

1 THE COURT: What happened?

2 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: The case was dismissed.

3 THE COURT: The case was dismissed.

4 How long ago was that?

5 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: More than 10 years ago.

6 THE COURT: Anything about that, were you actually
7 taken in?

8 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

9 THE COURT: Did you spend overnight in jail too?

10 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

11 THE COURT: And, when was it dismissed, right away?

12 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, not right away, I had to 13 go to court.

14 THE COURT: And is there anything about that
15 experience that you think would affect your ability to be fair
16 in this case?

17 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

18 THE COURT: And how do you feel about the way that 19 your-- that your attorney handled the case? I assume you were 20 represented, right?

21 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

22 THE COURT: How do you feel about the way that the
23 attorneys handled the case?

24 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: They did the right thing.

25 THE COURT: Then you mentioned that you were

- Proceedings -

95

1 summoned for an IRS trial, but it got postponed. Were you
2 being called as a witness?

3 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

4 THE COURT: And, do you know when they are going
5 to-- if they are going to have a trial or not?

6 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: They called me actually last
7 week and it should be in two more weeks to call me again. I'm 8 not sure exactly the date.

9 THE COURT: They said they would call you in two weeks.

10 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, because it was going to 11 be a Friday, so it was short notice, in two more weeks they 12 should call me again.

13 THE COURT: Is that going to be here in New York?

14 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It will be in this Court,
15 this building.

16 THE COURT: In this building.

17 You don't recognize any of the lawyers here, do you?

18 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. I've never seen a
19 lawyer for that case yet.

20 THE COURT: You have not seen a lawyer for that case
21 yet. Okay.

22 You also mentioned that you use to abuse alcohol and 23 that you have been delivered from that. Congratulations.

24 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

25 THE COURT: How long?

- Proceedings -

96

1 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: More than five years.

2 THE COURT: And, as I asked some of the other
3 jurors, is there anything about that that you think would
4 affect your ability to be fair and impartial?

5 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

6 THE COURT: Thank you.

7 And, juror number 50, let me ask you to come up with
8 the attorneys.

9 (Sidebar.)

10 THE COURT: We will have you come up next to me over
11 here.

12 So, you left out your age.

13 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm 42 years old.

14 THE COURT: You should be very proud, nice looking 15 42 years old.

16 You mentioned that you know me from your employers,
17 I guess the Brooklyn Bar Association.

18 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Okay. I worked for the 19 attorney, David Chidekel.

20 THE COURT: Okay.

21 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: So I worked for Mr.
22 Chidekel, because at the Brooklyn Bar Association, the courts
23 and other functions that he is in.

24 THE COURT: I'm trying to look at your face and I
25 never forget a face, but I could not quite place you.

- Proceedings -

97

1           On page-- question 31, you left that blank. Let me
2 remind you of what that was.

3           Are you still working?

4           THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, I'm still working for 5 Mr. Chidekel. I have been working 15 years for him. I have 6 been thinking of retiring.

7           THE COURT: I think you are holding down the fort
8 for him now.

9           His wife is gravely ill.

10          MR. RUSSELL: I didn't know that.

11          THE COURT: 31-F, you left blank, all the law
12 enforcement officers, F.B.I., Special Agent Thomas McNally.

13          THE DEFENDANT: I don't know him.

14          THE COURT: Detective Jeffrey Nixno(phonetic)?

15          THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't know him.

16          THE COURT: Anthony Viggiani, you don't know him?

17          THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

18          THE COURT: Those are all no.

19          THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: That is -- I was confused.

20          THE COURT: Those are all, no.

21          And, question 57, you may have just not seen. That 22 was left blank. The question is, will you have any difficulty
23 not discussing the case with anyone except with your fellow
24 jurors in the jury room after the Judge instructs you to begin
25 deliberations. Can you do that?

- Proceedings -

98

1 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I won't discuss anything
2 with no one. The fact that I-- whatever case we have with my
3 boss, I just-- it is between the office. It stays in the 4 office, it does not go beyond the office.

5 THE COURT: Okay. You did mention that there might 6 be a hardship because your boss is a solo practitioner. Are 7 you the only one working in the office right now?

8 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right now, he has problems
9 as you know. I informed him that I had to come in today, so
10 he said, fine, do what you have to do. If you have to serve,
11 I don't have a problem, you serve.

12 THE COURT: Do you have any questions?

13 MR. AMATRUDA: Judge, I may have missed this, but I
14 think we talked about question 49, which was -- maybe left blank.

15 THE COURT: I didn't ask about question 49.

16 Yes. Question 49 was left blank. That was the 17 question that I was just discussing about some witnesses who
18 may have pled guilty and they will be testifying pursuant to a 19 cooperation agreement. Do you have any kind of belief or 20 opinion about that?

21 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, no opinion.

22 MR. RUSSELL: Can I follow up on something.

23 You said right now, who is running the office, no one?

24 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right now, Mr. Chidekel's
25 office, right now he is not in. I am basically the one making

- Proceedings -

99

1 every arrangement that needs to be done.

2 MR. RUSSELL: Did he discuss with you a long-term
3 plan if you had to serve.

4 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I explained that to him. He
5 said if you have to do it, you have to do it.

6 MR. RUSSELL: Okay. That is very nice. But I know
7 the reality of that one.

8 THE COURT: Any other questions?

9 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 15 years already working for 10 him.

11 MR. RUSSELL: I know.

12 THE COURT: Why don't you have a seat.

13 (Juror excused from the sidebar.)

14 THE COURT: I have to tell you honestly, I would 15 feel very uncomfortable having her here as a juror.

16 MR. RUSSELL: She is the whole office.

17 MS. FARHADIAN: She is not anonymous any more either.

18 THE COURT: We could certainly seal this part of the 19 record, but, I have a very close relationship with David
20 Chidekel and his situation is not a good situation. I
21 certainly would feel uncomfortable.

22 MR. JASPER: I think we agree to consent.

23 MS. FARHADIAN: We agree.

24 THE COURT: Let's keep it going.

25 (Open Court.)

- Proceedings -

100

1 THE COURT: I don't need the reporter for this. If
2 I can just see the lawyers for one more second.

3 (Off record at the bench.)

4 THE COURT: I will need the reporter for a few
5 minutes. Just bear with us.

6 (Sidebar.)

7 MR. RUSSELL: What we tried to do is just kind of go
8 among ourselves and come up with a smaller number.

9 MR. AMATRUDA: These are some we just agreed to.

10 THE COURT: Okay.

11 MR. AMATRUDA: Both sides agree that 15, should be a
12 cause on consent. That is the woman who does not speak
13 English very well; 20, the man who tells his wife.

14 THE COURT: Yes.

15 MS. FARHADIAN: He was honest about telling his wife.

16 MR. AMATRUDA: And number 50, which was agreed on.

17 And then there are a couple more that we don't agree
18 on that we would like to have Your Honor's help with.

19 THE COURT: Okay.

20 Let's take them one by one, okay.

21 So, number four, that is the lady whose husband has 22 the low dose radiation every day.

23 MR. RUSSELL: We don't have an issue with it.

24 THE COURT: Okay.

25 MR. RUSSELL: We don't have an issue with it.

- Proceedings -

101

1 MR. AMATRUDA: We are okay with that.

2 THE COURT: I think she will try to accommodate
3 whatever happens. The only concern I had with her is, you
4 know, if it were me, I would be worried thinking day by day
5 and it could be a little bit distracting.

6 MR. RUSSELL: A lot distracting.

7 THE COURT: So, I mean -- but it sounds like he is 8 managing.

9 Number 7. Seemed okay to me.

10 MR. AMATRUDA: Yes.

11 MR. RINALDO: Yes.

12 THE COURT: I was concerned about the language
13 problems for number 8.

14 MR. RUSSELL: Yes.

15 MR. AMATRUDA: We felt, Judge, that she has been 16 here for 20 years, she works at a bank. She works on, you
17 know, when she was trying to explain her thing. I think that 18 is something that I think anybody even fluent English might 19 have a hard time sort of explaining. It seems to me like she 20 understood everything. It just didn't seem to-- she would 21 have the ability to follow what was going on in the witness
22 testimony.

23 MS. FARHADIAN: Unlike some of the others. We did
24 think two other people did have trouble with language. But we 25 thought she was different.

- Proceedings -

102

1 MR. JASPER: Her trouble was very high. When you
2 asked her whether or not-- when you asked her whether or not,
3 she sat on a criminal case, after having sat on a Grand Jury.
4 She said it was a small case. It didn't seem like she had any
5 clue what the Court was talking about.

6 THE COURT: I think she has a serious enough
7 language problem to give the defendants a cause challenge. So
8 she is stricken.

9 Number ten, I think is fine. She has got doctors'
10 appointments for the kids, that can be rearranged.

11 MR. RUSSELL: Yes.

12 THE COURT: I didn't really see any other issues. I
13 think she was rehabilitated with respect to the media issue.
14 So then we move to number 23. I thought she was fine.

15 MR. RINALDO: Yes.

16 MR. AMATRUDA: Yes, we will agree.

17 THE COURT: Okay.

18 Number 24. He is the one with the financial
19 hardship.

20 MR. RUSSELL: As far as he is concerned, if he 21 doesn't go to work he doesn't get paid. He is in a consulting
22 position.

23 MR. RINALDO: I thought we left it with him, he is 24 not getting paid flat out.

25 MR. RUSSELL: That's it.

- Proceedings -

103

1 THE COURT: Any issues with him? His wife only
2 works part-time.

3 MR. AMATRUDA: That is fine.

4 THE COURT: So, defendants' cause is granted.
5 Number 27, I thought was okay.

6 MR. AMATRUDA: Judge, I think that it is a major,
7 major issue that she is Facebook friends with Destiny Robinson
8 and it is for a few reasons.

9 Destiny Robinson dated one of our cooperating
10 witnesses. She is in regular contact with the defendant Shaun
11 Taylor. There are going to be jail calls we will play between 12 Shaun Taylor and Destiny Robinson at this trial.

13 And, there really isn't any way to control what 14 Destiny Robinson is posting on Facebook. Destiny Robinson has 15 a keen interest in what is going on in this trial. In fact,
16 from the phone calls that I have listened to, the defendant
17 Taylor basically is using Destiny as a way to get information
18 about the government's case, who is cooperating and who is not.

19 I think if this -- so for two reasons, one is that 20 she obviously knows Destiny, maybe not out in personal
21 contact, but they obviously know about each other's lives.
22 And Destiny Robinson, I don't think she will testify, she is 23 going to be a figure in the trial. I think that one of the 24 things that the defendant Taylor raises frequently in the 25 phone calls, is that Tyler Briggs, the witness' testifying in

- Proceedings -

104

1 part out of jealousy because of Shaun Taylor's relationship
2 with Destiny Robinson.

3 I just think her friendship with Destiny is a big
4 problem.

5 MS. FARHADIAN: If I may add one thing on behalf of 6 the government. We have also seen Destiny come to court
7 often. She was here last week and she will recognize this
8 juror. She knows this juror's name. So I think that that 9 raises some concerns as well about her being able to tell the 10 defendant she is in regular contact with, the name and 11 identity of this juror.

12 THE COURT: I think what is a bigger concern than 13 the Facebook thing, I think is the juror, otherwise, I think
14 sincerely would make an effort as she said to un-friend.

15 MR. RUSSELL: Right.

16 THE COURT: Destiny. Robinson is it?

17 MS. FARHADIAN: Yes.

18 THE COURT: But I think of all the points that the 19 government has made, because I think this particular juror
20 doesn't seem to have a close relationship and is sophisticated
21 enough about Facebook and willing to shut down her access to 22 Destiny Robinson's postings. But the bigger concern is that 23 if she is going to be in court frequently, she is going to 24 know who this juror is and there goes the anonymity.

25 MR. HERMAN: If she is on the witness list she can't

- Proceedings -

105

1 be in court. She will have to be sequestered that is what we
2 are assuming.

3 MS. FARHADIAN: That wasn't a witness list. That is
4 a list of names you will hear at trial. I mean, at this
5 point, I don't think we anticipate calling her, but she will
6 come in and she knows this person's name as I said.

7 MR. HERMAN: We can tell her not to come in. If she
8 is a potential witness she should not be in the courtroom.

9 THE COURT: I will grant the Government's challenge.
10 That is number 27.

11 Number 35 I thought was okay.

12 MR. HERMAN: Yes.

13 MR. RINALDO: Yes.

14 THE COURT: Number 36, I thought was okay.

15 MR. RINALDO: Yes.

16 THE COURT: Number 39 was okay.

17 MS. FARHADIAN: Just, you asked us to inquire about 18 Detective Ryan.

19 THE COURT: Yes.

20 MS. FARHADIAN: Our Detective Ryan lives in 21 Tennessee now. He is retired. It is not the same person.

22 THE COURT: Okay, good. That was in connection with 23 number 39, right?

24 MS. FARHADIAN: 36.

25 THE COURT: 36.

- Proceedings -

106

1 So, 41, I thought was okay.

2 MR. RINALDO: Yes.

3 THE COURT: 43 was okay.

4 MR. HERMAN: Yes.

5 THE COURT: 47. The body language guy.

6 MR. RUSSELL: I'm looking at his body language, he
7 is looking at everybody else, I'm looking at his. Icksnay.
8 You have their position.

9 THE COURT: I will hear from you.

10 MR. AMATRUDA: I mean he-- look, I think what Mr.
11 Russell is referring to, he is an unusual person. The way he 12 carries himself. I think that-- I think he said, he was going
13 to be fair. He said he understood Your Honor's point when you
14 explained it to him.

15 Mr. Herman asked him, do you have an opinion whether 16 these guys are innocent or guilty. He said, no.

17 MR. RINALDO: He struggled with that answer.

18 THE COURT: I agree. I'm not certain-- how should I
19 say, it is not clear to me based on his hesitation that he can 20 set aside his suspicions.

21 So, the defendant's challenge for cause is granted.
22 That is number 47.

23 And number 48, I thought was okay. The work thing
24 is moot.

25 And number 49, I think is okay.

- Proceedings -

1 MR. HERMAN: Yes.

2 THE COURT: If she stays, we have to let her know,
3 she has to tell the IRS, she is a juror. If they need her,
4 they have got to bring her in on a Friday or wait.

5 Then 50, we have agreed that is a consent.

6 So then what we will do is the rest of the jurors
7 that-- who we did not question, are going to go to lunch and 8 come back here at 2:15. And, we will just reseal them.

9 I made up some signs for the jurors to put out
10 there. That they are not to come in until they are actually
11 brought in by court staff.

12 And then, the jurors who we have questioned today
13 will come back tomorrow at 9:30.

14 I'm wondering, if we shouldn't tell them to come
15 back in the afternoon, because we still have got another-- we 16 have about half what we got today and then the 40 coming in 17 this afternoon.

18 So we will tell them at 2 o'clock. We will still be 19 in good shape if we finish tomorrow.

20 MR. AMATRUDA: Yes.

21 THE COURT: We won't have very much to go through 22 with the pre-cleared people. It is not that many.

23 (Open Court.)

24 (Transcript continues on next page.)

1 (In open court.)

2 THE COURT: All right. Thank you for your patience,
3 ladies and gentlemen. All right. We are going to take our
4 break for lunch now.

5 So, we questioned about 18 of you. Those of you who
6 are in the first three rows, okay, so you can go home. Those 7 of you who we questioned, you go home, however, you have to 8 call in that number that you were given by the jury clerk.
9 You need to call that number every day. You will be told when
10 you call that number whether you have to come back and if you
11 do have to come back, what time and what day to come back.
12 Okay? So, keeping in mind that we're not going to meet on 13 Fridays -- this Friday is 4th of July. We're not going to 14 meet on the days on Fridays anyway.

15 All right. So just to be clear, for our first 18
16 people in these first three rows, all right, you can go. Go
17 straight home. All right. But you have got to make those 18 calls to the number that you were given the same way that you
19 called last week. Okay? And you will be given more specific 20 instructions.

21 Yes, sir.

22 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: When do we begin calling?

23 THE COURT: After 5 o'clock.

24 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Today?

25 THE COURT: Today. After 5 o'clock today, you will

1 get a message that tells you whether or not you have to come
2 pack and when you have to come back and what time. Okay? All
3 right --

4 So, those of you who were questioned in the first
5 three rows, you do not have to come back. The rest of you,
6 okay, we are going to ask you to come back this afternoon at 7 2:15. So our last row here and our rows over here, okay, you
8 have to come back to this, when you come back, just congregate
9 outside. Do not enter until somebody from my staff tells you
10 to come in. Okay?

11 All right. So 2:15. So enjoy your lunch. This is 12 a lovely area. Okay? Enjoy your lunch. Be careful.
13 Remember not to talk about this case or about the jury
14 selection or anything you've seen. Okay? Take all of your 15 belongings. Somebody left a bag. Be careful stepping down.
16 Whatever you need to discuss, we will discuss this afternoon.
17 We will discuss it this afternoon. Step out.

18 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Okay.

19 (Prospective jurors exit.)

20 THE COURT: Okay. Let the record reflect that the 21 jurors are no longer present.

22 Just so that the lawyers know, those are the 23 instructions that we were given by the jury clerk and then we 24 are going to give her the numbers of the jurors who have been
25 excused for cause and the jurors who are going to come back

1 tomorrow afternoon. Okay? So this way, she doesn't get rid
2 of anybody per se until we actually tell them that they are
3 excused. All right. So she keeps them calling. I will see
4 everybody at 2:15.

5 All right. Marshals, you can take charge.

6 (Defendants not present.)

7 THE COURT: Apparently, Juror Number 48 waited until 8 everybody got dismissed, he was one of the ones we were not
9 dismissing, to say he has some issues with three other dates.

10 MR. RUSSELL: That's the one with the conference,
11 right?

12 THE COURT: Right.

13 I don't know, he didn't ask so I didn't say, really.

14 MR. AMATRUDA: Your Honor, is it okay if we leave
15 our stuff here during the lunch break?

16 THE COURT: Yes. Just don't leave any electronics
17 or anything that you wouldn't want to lose.

18 (Luncheon recess.)

2                   (The following occurred in the absence of the
3 prospective jury panel.)

4                   (Defendants present.)

5                   THE COURT: This is case on trial continued, voir
6 dire continued.

7                   Please, everybody, remain seated.

8                   All the parties who were here this morning are 9 present; defendants are present; the jury is not present.

10                  Furthermore, there was another batch of 40 that were 11 coming in this afternoon. They are actually down in the 12 ceremonial courtroom. I think, just because it gets a little 13 bit crowded over here and it will get a little bit crazy for 14 seating purposes, we are just going to finish up with the next 15 three rows of jurors from this morning. That should take us
16 to about break time anyway.

17                  I will let the attorneys exercise their cause
18 challenges and then we can just let them go and then we will 19 bring up the other 40.

20                  Okay?

21                  Is everybody ready?

22                  We are going to reseat the jurors so that they are 23 not out there. We are going to reseat them in the first --
24 they can actually go straight into the jury box, I guess. We 25 have room for everybody in the jury box.

1           They will basically be in the same order as they
2       were this morning. They are just going to be sitting here
3       instead of out there.

4           (The following occurs in the presence of the
5       prospective jury panel.)

6           THE LAW CLERK: We are gong to move everybody up.

7           THE COURT: Let them sit inside the jury box.

8           THE LAW CLERK: I think we only have room for 9       everybody if we use all four rows.

10          THE COURT: Sir, wait, before you go all the way up
11       there. Sir, wait, please. He was sitting in the back row
12       with them.

13          THE LAW CLERK: You are going to be in this seat
14       now.

15          THE COURT: Be careful, please.

16          I couldn't stop you fast enough. You were too fast
17       for me.

18          In numerical order, please. 68.

19          THE LAW CLERK: Then 86 and following.

20          Those three seats, please.

21          And then the six of you, take the row right behind
22       them and also stay in the order you are in.

23          Then the five of take the last row, please.

24          THE COURT: 106 will be closer over here.

25          THE LAW CLERK: That last seat will be empty.

1 THE COURT: Great. Thank you.

2 Do all of the parties agree that all of our jurors
3 are present and properly seated?

4 MR. RINALDO: Yes.

5 THE COURT: The government?

6 MR. AMATRUDA: Yes, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: And Mr. Russell?

8 MR. RUSSELL: Yes, Your Honor.

9 But if the Court doesn't mind, can I just get a
10 number? I want to make sure I have the numbers right.

11 THE COURT: In the front we have, 52, 56, 59, 60,
12 64, 66.

13 Then behind in the second row, 68, 70, 84, 86, 90,
14 93.

15 Then 95, 96, 99, 100, 102, 105.

16 And then in the final row, 106, 117, 127, 128 and 17 136.

18 Okay?

19 MR. RUSSELL: Thank you.

20 THE COURT: Okay. Welcome back, ladies and 21 gentlemen. I hope you had a nice lunch and stretched your 22 legs a little bit.

23 We are going to continue proceeding as we did this
24 morning.

25 Juror number 52, good afternoon.

1 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Good afternoon.

2 THE COURT: All right. We would just like to know a
3 little bit about your job or whether you are working. It
4 wasn't clear because you left 14 blank which says, if you are
5 employed. And then 15 you answered -- are you retired?

6 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. I am retired but right
7 now I am babysitting.

8 THE COURT: Right now you baby-sit?

9 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

10 THE COURT: Okay. This is for a family member that 11 you baby-sit?

12 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. It is a neighbor.

13 THE COURT: For a neighbor?

14 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

15 THE COURT: That's your job?

16 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

17 THE COURT: That's what you do?

18 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

19 THE COURT: What happens? Are you babysitting now?

20 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. I let her know because 21 this jury duty procedure but they in school after five. So
22 she put them in day care. I'd be able to pick them up if I
23 leave here.

24 THE COURT: Okay. So if you leave here at 5:00
25 o'clock, you will be home in time to pick them up?

1 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

2 THE COURT: Okay. It is not a problem if we start
3 at 9:30?

4 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Not a problem.

5 THE COURT: Okay. Terrific.

6 What did you do before you were babysitting, when
7 you retired? What did you retire from?

8 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I was a security guard.

9 THE COURT: You were a security guard?

10 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

11 THE COURT: For a private company?

12 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes. For stores, like
13 Comp USA, Banana Republic.

14 THE COURT: For like department stores?

15 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

16 THE COURT: Okay. Are you married now? It wasn't
17 clear.

18 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I am single.

19 THE COURT: You are single?

20 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

21 THE COURT: Okay. For number 16, it says if you are 22 married or involved in a long term relationship, you --

23 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I had a long-term
24 relationship but not married.

25 THE COURT: Oh, okay. I wasn't sure.

1           Then you said, he has COPD? Do you mean he's
2 disabled?

3           THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

4           THE COURT: Your significant other is disabled?
5 Okay. So he is not working at all?

6           THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

7           THE COURT: Then you mentioned that you had a baby
8 brother who is in prison but that you did not know --

9           THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I understand, when I left
10 here I talked to my mom about it. She let me know because I
11 don't speak to him, ever seen him since he's 18. He is 12 37 years old now.

13           THE COURT: It has been almost -- more than
14 18 years.

15           THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 25-years-to-life.

16           THE COURT: Okay. Do you know what the charges are?

17           THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Murder.

18           THE COURT: Murder.

19           Before that, before you had to fill out this 20 questionnaire, you didn't --

21           THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I never seen him.

22           THE COURT: Okay. Do you know if it had anything to 23 do with narcotics?

24           THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: To me, but I was told it was 25 just over trying get money and wind up not getting money and

1 it was too late, already did what he did and left the state.
2 So --

3 THE COURT: It's a state --

4 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: He left the state. That's
5 when they found him in another state.

6 THE COURT: Okay. Of course, you know that the 7 charges here do involve allegations of murder, correct?

8 Is there anything about what happened with your 9 brother, and the charges here, do you think would affect your 10 ability to be fair?

11 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. Because it had nothing
12 to do with me.

13 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

14 Juror number 56, good afternoon.

15 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Good afternoon.

16 THE COURT: You mentioned one of the questions --
17 for the lawyers, it's 28 -- you mentioned that you are aware
18 of gang activity and then you mentioned that you were afraid
19 to be out at night.

20 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes. Because I come home
21 from work like 9:30, I get from the train and then I have to 22 take a bus and I have to walk like three blocks.

23 THE COURT: Okay.

24 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: So I am scared, you know.

25 THE COURT: We discussed the nature of the charges

1 here. Is there anything about the nature of the charges and
2 your fears about being out at night, anything about that that
3 you think might affect your ability to be fair and impartial
4 here?

5 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, no, not really.

6 THE COURT: This is a point I guess that's good to 7 follow-up with everyone here.

8 There was a question that asked:

9 Do you believe that the fact that someone has been
10 arrested means that a person must be guilty?

11 You said yes, because they have to be punished for 12 what they did to other people, especially kids.

13 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, I say that.

14 THE COURT: You do understand that the mere fact
15 that someone has been arrested doesn't necessarily mean that 16 they are guilty because the government has the burden of 17 proving the guilt of anyone who is accused of a crime,
18 whatever the crime is. It doesn't matter what the crime is.
19 The government has the burden of proving the guilt of any
20 defendant charged with a crime beyond a reasonable doubt.

21 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right.

22 THE COURT: Of course, it is up to the trial jury to 23 decide whether the government has sustained its burden after 24 they have heard all of the evidence presented and after they
25 have heard my instructions on the law and after -- three steps

1 have to happen. You hear all the evidence, you hear my
2 instructions on the law, and then the jury gets to discuss all
3 the evidence against the instructions on the law. So that is 4 a lot that happens right after a person has been arrested.

5 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

6 THE COURT: So understanding that, do you still 7 believe that if someone has been arrested, the person must be
8 guilty?

9 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Depends, you know.

10 THE COURT: It depends on what?

11 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: What the charge is about,
12 what they done, what they did; depends.

13 THE COURT: You also mentioned that if you -- it
14 said: Do you believe if a grand jury issues an indictment a
15 defendant must be guilty?

16 You said, yes. You said, they should go to jail.

17 Again, this goes back to what I mentioned before.
18 The mere fact that a person has been arrested does not 19 necessarily mean that they are guilty because that's what the 20 trial is for.

21 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Okay.

22 THE COURT: The same thing, an indictment, because
23 an indictment is not evidence. An indictment is not evidence.
24 An indictment is a tool. It is a tool that allows the case to 25 be brought to trial. It informs the defendants as to what the

1 charges are that the government has brought. It is sort of
2 what gets the ball rolling so that we could get to this point,
3 to the trial, where the government then has the burden of 4 proving the guilt of the defendants beyond a reasonable doubt.

5 Then it is going to be up to the jury, the trial
6 jury, to decide whether or not the defendants are guilty. So
7 the indictment is not evidence. The indictment is not proof
8 of anything.

9 Do you understand that?

10 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

11 THE COURT: Can you accept that instruction?

12 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, I can.

13 THE COURT: Okay. Can you accept my instruction
14 that the mere fact that somebody is arrested doesn't mean that 15 they are guilty?

16 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, I could.

17 THE COURT: Thank you.

18 Is there anybody else who has any problems with 19 that, with following those instructions? This is the time to 20 tell us.

21 No. Okay.

22 Thank you.

23 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: You are welcome.

24 THE COURT: And, as a matter of fact, I just want to 25 make sure that you understand, that if there is any issue at

1 all, remember that last, last question in the -- what we call
2 if there are any hardships or scheduling issues, that very
3 last question, was there any reason at all why you couldn't
4 serve on the jury.

5 If there is anything at all, this is the time to 6 tell us. Okay? If there are scheduling issues, problems with
7 the job, whatever. This is the time to tell us because if you
8 get chosen to serve, once we get underway, I am not going to 9 excuse you. Okay? This is the time to bring up anything.

10 Maybe you don't know if it is important or not.
11 Even if you don't know whether it is important or not, let us
12 decide whether it is important or not. Okay? Just bring it
13 up to us. Okay?

14 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Okay.

15 THE COURT: If it is something, like I said, that is 16 sensitive, we talked about a lot of sensitive things already 17 with people. But as we can see, things happen to people. As 18 they say, bad things happen to good people. Things happen in 19 families and the only reason why we are talking about them is 20 to make sure that you would be able to serve as a fair and 21 impartial juror in this case.

22 Okay? I just wanted to remind you of that.

23 So now, juror 59, hi.

24 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Hi.

25 THE COURT: Hi.

1           You mentioned that you had a problem with English.

2           THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

3           THE COURT: You told us that you are a housewife.

4           THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

5           THE COURT: And but you didn't tell us what --

6 whether you went to school and where you went to school.

7           Did you go to school.

8           THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I graduate in my country.

9           THE COURT: In your country?

10          THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, in my country. I did
11 here the cosmetic course but institution.

12          THE COURT: Okay.

13          THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Then I never go to work
14 because I have a baby-sitter my kids. I take care of my kids.
15 That's it.

16          THE COURT: Okay. In India, when you went to 17 school, how far did you go to school?

18          THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Very close to my house.

19          THE COURT: I'm sorry. I asked the same question.
20 That was not asked very well.

21          The way to ask the question is, what was the highest
22 grade that you completed in school?

23          THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Graduation.

24          THE COURT: Did you go to --

25          THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: College.

1 THE COURT: You went to college?

2 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

3 THE COURT: Did you major in anything in college?

4 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

5 THE COURT: No?

6 In India, you don't major when you go to college?

7 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Major like?

8 THE COURT: Like specialize, like science?

9 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Special, in the child
10 psychology.

11 THE COURT: In child psychology?

12 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

13 THE COURT: When you talk with your children, what's 14 the primary language you use to talk with your children?

15 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: In my country, Hindi
16 language.

17 THE COURT: In the Hindi language?

18 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

19 THE COURT: Have you ever held a job outside of the 20 home?

21 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

22 THE COURT: What language is the schooling in India?

23 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Both English and Hindi. But 24 Hindi is more.

25 THE COURT: Okay. When you get to the college

1 level, what is the language?

2 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: The same thing, two
3 languages.

4 THE COURT: The same thing?

5 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

6 THE COURT: Two languages.

7 Thank you.

8 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: You are welcome.

9 THE COURT: Juror number 60, good afternoon.

10 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Good afternoon.

11 THE COURT: You were asked the question, everyone
12 was asked the question: At this point in time do you have an 13 opinion about whether any of the defendants are guilty of the 14 crimes charged.

15 You said, yes, but you also explained that you need
16 to see or hear what evidence they have to prove that they are 17 innocent or guilty.

18 I wanted to understand what you meant by what
19 evidence they have to prove that they are innocent or guilty.

20 Who do you think has to present the evidence?

21 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, the witnesses that 22 either one of them has.

23 MR. HERMAN: I can't hear.

24 THE COURT: You have to speak a little bit louder.

25 She says, the witnesses that either one of them has.

1           Okay. So let's back up a little bit.

2           A little while ago you heard me mention that the
3 government has the burden of proving the guilt of the 4 defendants, both defendants, beyond a reasonable doubt. The 5 defendants have pled not guilty to the charges in the 6 indictment. Right now they are presumed innocent until such 7 time, as all the evidence has been presented, I have given the 8 instructions on the law, and the jurors unanimously decide
9 that the government has sustained its burden of proving the 10 guilt as to any of the charges beyond a reasonable doubt.

11           Do you understand that so far?

12           THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

13           THE COURT: Okay. The defendants do not have any 14 burden of proof. They do not have to present any evidence.
15 In fact, these lawyers don't have to do anything. If they 16 wanted to, they could sit there and do nothing. Because the 17 burden is always on the government to prove a defendant's
18 guilt, as in this case, or any case, beyond a reasonable
19 doubt.

20           Would you be able to follow that instruction?

21           THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

22           THE COURT: Do you feel that somehow the defendant
23 in some way is obligated to present any evidence?

24           THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't think so. If you
25 say that they are, you know, they don't have to or they don't,

1 then I mean --

2 THE COURT: Let me put it a different way. I don't
3 know if you have -- you are a young lady. I don't know if you
4 have any children or not. But let's say -- we've all had
5 experience with kids, right? And whether they are your own or 6 they are brothers or sisters and somebody else's kids, you
7 have two kinds in a room and you hear a loud noise and you
8 come into the room and the lamp is broken. It is on the 9 floor.

10 The natural reaction that we have is to find out
11 from each one of the children what happened, what's your side
12 of the story and what's the other child's side of the story.
13 That's the way we deal in the real world.

14 In a sense the courtroom is not the real world. We 15 have special rules. In this world, in the courtroom world,
16 the government always has the burden of proof. It is going to 17 be up to the government to present the evidence to prove the 18 defendants guilty.

19 As I said, the lawyers here don't have to present
20 any evidence if they don't want to. But maybe they do decide
21 to present evidence. Maybe they do decide they want to 22 question the government's witnesses. They have a right to do
23 that.

24 But the fact that they do that does not shift the 25 burden of proof on the defendant. In other words, it doesn't

1 mean that now the defendant has to prove that they are not
2 guilty. That burden is always on the government.

3 Do you understand that?

4 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

5 THE COURT: Can you follow that rule of law?

6 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

7 THE COURT: Is there anyone who has any problem
8 following that rule of law? Please raise your hand.

9 Okay. No one has raised their hand.

10 Thank you.

11 Juror 64, hi. You are pretty fast. I couldn't stop
12 you. You were all the way up there before I could stop you.

13 You were retired now?

14 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: What kind of a job did you do?

16 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I was a supervisor.

17 THE COURT: Of what?

18 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: In a motor vehicle company.
19 Volkswagen.

20 THE COURT: In Volkswagen.

21 Was that in manufacturing.

22 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. This was import-export.

23 THE COURT: Import-export?

24 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: In car parts.

25 THE COURT: I see.

1 Did you just ship the parts or were you making the
2 parts?

3 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. We import the parts.

4 THE COURT: You imported the parts. Okay.

5 You supervised the workers there?

6 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

7 THE COURT: Okay. How long have you been retired?

8 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, since about '96.

9 THE COURT: Since '96. Okay.

10 I see that as part of your activities you like to 11 watch some TV shows.

12 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, mostly court cases,
13 you know, regular -- regular shows, movies.

14 THE COURT: So you like to watch court cases.

15 You mentioned Judge Judy and we are all familiar
16 with Judge Judy.

17 Do you watch any other kind of court shows?

18 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

19 I watch Judge Milian, Judge Joe Brown, Judge Alex.

20 THE COURT: Okay.

21 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Judge Mathis. You name it,
22 I could tell you.

23 THE COURT: You know, I am not going to act like any 24 of those judges.

25 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Even divorce cases too.

1 THE COURT: I like to watch those shows too. I
2 watch them too.

3 But, you understand, of course, that those shows are
4 put together a lot for their dramatic value. So you don't get
5 to see, for example, a jury selection process like this --

6 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

7 THE COURT: -- on those shows because I have watched
8 those shows, the ones that you are talking about, when I get a
9 chance to watch TV.

10 There are a lot of shortcuts because they have to 11 make room for the commercial breaks and the cases are 12 relatively simple cases. So you don't see lawyers there. It
13 is just -- it is a people's court. Just the people get up
14 there and they present their case to whoever the judge is,
15 right?

16 So you can understand that those shows are going to 17 be very different from what you might see here in this
18 courtroom.

19 Do you understand that? Do you understand that?

20 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

21 THE COURT: Okay.

22 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: But some of the shows
23 sometimes, the plaintiffs have -- does have an attorney.

24 THE COURT: Okay.

25 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: In some of the shows.

1 THE COURT: Okay.

2 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Not all.

3 THE COURT: Okay. Most of those are civil cases,
4 right?

5 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right.

6 THE COURT: In other words, they are talking about
7 money damages, property that got damaged?

8 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: And so on. So, again, those shows are 10 dealing with another area of the law that has different rules.
11 Can you follow the rules of law as I give them here?

12 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I understand, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: Do you know what, I am not going to act
14 like Judge Judy. I don't get her kind of money to act like 15 that.

16 Okay. Thank you very much.

17 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Thank you, Your Honor.

18 THE COURT: Juror 66, hello. How are you?
19 You wanted to mention something earlier?

20 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes. I have a letter from 21 my company.

22 THE COURT: From your company?

23 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes. This is a letter.

24 THE COURT: Okay. Why don't I see counsel at the 25 side, please, and you can bring your letter.

1 I need the reporter.

2 (Side bar.)

3 (Juror present.)

4 THE COURT: This is raising a financial hardship
5 issue. The juror is the only person who works in your 6 household?

7 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

8 THE COURT: Okay. It doesn't say here, though, how 9 much your employer pays for jury duty. You mentioned that 10 they only pay one day. Correct?

11 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. After first day I come
12 to my company and ask how much going to be and they said just 13 only first day and after that two days. No more. Just --

14 THE COURT: For a total of three days?

15 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Total of three days.

16 THE COURT: That's all they pay you?

17 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

18 THE COURT: I see.

19 I could docket this under seal but this identifies
20 the juror by name and also the company.

21 In addition, it says, that there is a burden on the 22 employer because they recently lost a couple of members of 23 their finance staff.

24 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

25 THE COURT: And the juror is the only one with the

1 skill and knowledge to process vendor payments and maintain
2 the accounting system --

3 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

4 THE COURT: -- at the employer.

5 So they are asking for a postponement of her jury
6 duty.

7 The other thing I wanted to ask you about is, you
8 mentioned some difficulty with English. You didn't tell us
9 what your level of education is.

10 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I graduate two years college
11 in this country. But I am in the -- for my opinion, my 12 English is enough just only to do my job and just to talk.
13 But any specific words or situation or medical, for example,
14 this is -- I am not sure that I will understand.

15 THE COURT: We don't have any medical terms that I
16 am aware of here.

17 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: But I -- if it is some 18 specific words? I am not sure.

19 THE COURT: Were you able to understand the 20 instructions that I gave a little while ago?

21 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

22 THE COURT: You were able to follow that?

23 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

24 THE COURT: You were able to understand that?

25 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

1 THE COURT: You have some very accomplished
2 children, I see. Congratulations.

3 In what language do you talk to your children?

4 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Russian.

5 THE COURT: Russian?

6 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

7 THE COURT: Do you have any questions for the juror?

8 MR. RINALDO: No.

9 MR. AMATRUDA: No questions.

10 Thank you, Judge.

11 THE COURT: Okay. You know, can I give the letter
12 back to the juror?

13 MR. RINALDO: Yes.

14 MR. AMATRUDA: Yes, Your Honor.

15 THE COURT: I am going to give that back to you.
16 You can have a seat.

17 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Thank you.

18 (In open court.)

19 THE COURT: Juror 68, I believe you mentioned that 20 you were a law secretary in a law firm?

21 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right.

22 THE COURT: Without telling us the name of the firm
23 that you are with, what kind of law do they practice?

24 Is it civil or criminal?

25 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I think we do -- a lot of

1 different practices.

2 THE COURT: You are going to have to speak a little
3 bit louder.

4 She said she engages in a lot of different kind of
5 practice.

6 So you do a little bit of civil and criminal and 7 commercial?

8 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: The area I'm in corporate.

9 THE COURT: Corporate?

10 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Corporate.

11 THE COURT: You have been doing that for how long?

12 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: For this company, ten years.

13 THE COURT: Were you with another company before
14 that?

15 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

16 THE COURT: What kind of law did they do?

17 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Mostly real estate.

18 THE COURT: Real estate?

19 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

20 THE COURT: How long were you with them?

21 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Ten years.

22 THE COURT: You mentioned that your grandfather and 23 a brother were held up I think at knife point, was it?

24 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: That's correct.

25 THE COURT: Your dad also was beaten and robbed in

1 the street?

2 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right.

3 THE COURT: Were those reported to the police?

4 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't know for sure. I
5 don't believe so.

6 THE COURT: Okay. Did you talk to them at all about
7 the incident, what happened?

8 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Not in detail. I wasn't 9 around.

10 THE COURT: You mentioned that -- there was a
11 follow-up question to that about how you felt about the way
12 that law enforcement personnel responded. You felt that they 13 didn't respond appropriately. Then you said, unsure, as you
14 were not there at the time.

15 I just wanted to understand what you meant by that.

16 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I guess from what you said
17 repeatedly in court, I think I understand now how I was 18 feeling.

19 THE COURT: Okay. So how were you feeling? I don't 20 understand.

21 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I think I was like the other
22 juror, I wasn't sure if I wanted to judge.

23 MR. HERMAN: We still can't hear her.

24 THE COURT: She is very soft spoken. Can you
25 just -- I know it is difficult. Can you try to speak a little

1 bit louder?

2 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Sure.

3 THE COURT: Okay. I am not sure what it is that you
4 are saying.

5 Did you feel that law enforcement personnel
6 responded appropriately?

7 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, there was no law
8 enforcement.

9 THE COURT: There was no response?

10 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

11 THE COURT: Okay. Then I guess the other question,
12 and maybe this is what you are getting at, is, whether there
13 is anything about what happened to your family members that 14 you think would affect your ability to be fair and impartial
15 here?

16 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

17 THE COURT: Okay. You indicated in one of the 18 questions, there was a question about whether the nature of 19 the charges that we have here, as I explained before, there
20 are allegations about drug distribution and murder, murder for 21 hire, whether there is anything about the nature of the 22 charges that might affect your ability to be fair and 23 impartial. You had answered that you were unsure.

24 For the lawyers, that's question 40.

25 Is there anything about that that you think would

1 affect your ability to be fair here?

2 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, I don't think so.

3 THE COURT: For the lawyers, it is question 51.

4 Question 51 relates to something that I have
5 mentioned a little bit throughout today. It says the jurors
6 are the sole judges of the facts. That's the role of the 7 jury. The jury is going to listen to the witnesses and decide
8 what the facts are in the case.

9 Then, I, the judge, instruct the jury about the 10 principles of law that apply. Then you apply them to the 11 facts as you find them, and the jury may not just follow some 12 rules of law and not follow the others. The juror has to 13 accept the law as I give it to the jury. Even if you don't 14 like the law, even if you don't understand why the law is the 15 way it is, you have to follow the law as I give it.

16 The question was, do you have any personal beliefs
17 that would make it difficult to follow the Court's legal 18 instructions, whatever they may be?

19 You answered, yes, and you said I am afraid I may 20 not understand fully which may distort my judgment.

21 I didn't understand what you meant by that. If you
22 could explain that?

23 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I think I understand now.

1 THE COURT: Well, can you follow that principle of
2 law, that you have to accept the law as I give it, but the
3 jury makes a decision as to what the facts are and what the 4 facts are not. That's the jury's role. Do you understand
5 that?

6 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

7 THE COURT: And you can follow that?

8 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

9 THE COURT: And perhaps I explained it already
10 earlier in connection with one of the other juror's questions.
11 You had said that you didn't understand the question. The 12 question was, Do you believe that if a grand jury issues an 13 indictment, the defendant must be guilty? Do you understand
14 that now, that the indictment is not evidence?

15 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

16 THE COURT: And you can follow that instruction?

17 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

18 THE COURT: Okay.

19 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Your Honor. I don't think I
20 put it on the questionnaire, but I might have a conflict.

21 THE COURT: In terms of? What kind of a conflict?

22 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I have classes.

23 THE COURT: You have what?

24 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Classes.

25 THE COURT: What kind of classes?

1 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: College classes.

2 THE COURT: Well, when do they start?

3 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: They don't start until
4 August 28.

5 THE COURT: August when?

6 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: 28.

7 THE COURT: That's not going to be a conflict.

8 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I also have vacation plans
9 in July.

10 THE COURT: Well, you didn't put anything about
11 having vacation plans in July.

12 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm sorry. I didn't put it
13 down, because they were not confirmed yet.

14 THE COURT: They were not confirmed yet. So, you
15 confirmed them after you found out that you were going to be 16 called for jury service?

17 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, because I was on a wait
18 list.

19 THE COURT: I'm sorry?

20 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I was on a wait list for a
21 time share.

22 THE COURT: When is the vacation?

23 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: The week of July 19.

24 THE COURT: The week of July 19?

25 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

1 THE COURT: It's a time share.

2 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

3 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

4 Juror No. 70. My questions relate to two questions
5 that are sort of interrelated on the questionnaire. For the 6 lawyers, it is 25 and 27. You mentioned that you had a dad
7 and an uncle who were charged with narcotics possession. Are 8 they still in jail?

9 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

10 THE COURT: No. They are not.

11 Do you know whether they went to trial?

12 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, I don't know. I don't 13 know the specifics of either one.

14 THE COURT: You don't know the specifics of either
15 one?

16 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

17 THE COURT: Have you ever talked to them at all
18 about what happened to them?

19 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

20 THE COURT: Is there anything about their situation
21 that you feel might affect your ability to be fair and
22 impartial here?

23 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

24 THE COURT: There was a question number 4, for the 25 lawyers. I just wanted to make sure. You mentioned that a

1 family member was a defendant. Were you referring to your dad
2 and your uncle?

3 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

4 THE COURT: I just wanted to be clear about that.

5 And then you mentioned -- question 3 for the lawyers
6 -- that drugs and alcohol abuse, there was some drugs and 7 alcohol abuse within the family. You've heard me talk to some
8 of the other jurors today about that, and as you can see, it
9 happens to all people. Is there anything about the fact that 10 your family has had a struggle with that and the charges here
11 that you think would affect your ability to be fair and
12 impartial?

13 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

14 THE COURT: Thank you.

15 Juror No. 84. Good afternoon.

16 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Good afternoon.

17 THE COURT: So, you had a nephew who was murdered in 18 an altercation --

19 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

20 THE COURT: -- about a girlfriend.

21 Is this the same person who you mentioned -- for the 22 lawyers, in question 36 -- that someone was killed and there
23 were no details?

24 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, that's the same person.

25 THE COURT: Was anyone ever arrested in connection

1 with that?

2 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes. I think he's still
3 incarcerated.

4 THE COURT: Did that happen here in the United
5 States?

6 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, that happened in 7 Baltimore.

8 THE COURT: Did that person go to trial?

9 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

10 THE COURT: Did you attend the trial?

11 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. My sister did.

12 THE COURT: Okay. How do you feel about the way
13 that law enforcement responded to that situation?

14 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Oh, they were pretty good
15 with her. The two officers came to the funeral services. It
16 was such a hideous crime.

17 THE COURT: You heard me mention this morning there
18 are likely to be police officers, and, I don't know, maybe
19 other law enforcement agency people who might testify here.
20 In your case, you feel you had a favorable experience with law
21 enforcement officers. Would you be able to assess their 22 testimony the same as if they were doing anything else, they 23 were painting a house or schoolteachers or delivering the 24 mail?

25 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Sure, because I believe in

1 the habeas corpus law. A person is innocent until proven
2 guilty.

3 THE COURT: And you had an issue with an altercation
4 where you were accused of a robbery and you got arrested?

5 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

6 THE COURT: How do you feel about the -- first of 7 all, the outcome was that it was dismissed, that you said?

8 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: That was a matter that I got 9 involved with my sister, defending my sister on a company van,
10 and the gentleman -- I interceded, and he went and said I
11 tried to rob him, which was totally false. So, when 12 everything came out in the clear, there was no robbery I went 13 to protect my sister.

14 THE COURT: So, how do you feel about the way your 15 case was handled?

16 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It was handled properly.
17 That's why they ended up dismissing. After all the facts came 18 out, they realized he was just trying to get back to me to 19 lose my job, which I did lose my job.

20 THE COURT: Just to follow up, there was that last
21 question that asked whether there's any reason why a juror
22 can't serve on the jury. Is there any reason why you think
23 you can't serve on the jury?

24 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, your Honor.

25 THE COURT: Thank you.

1 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: You are welcome.

2 THE COURT: Juror No. 86. Good afternoon. And you
3 mentioned that you may have a vacation scheduled?

4 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I do have, July 21.

5 THE COURT: I'm sorry?

6 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: July 21.

7 THE COURT: How long are you going to be gone?

8 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: A week.

9 THE COURT: A week?

10 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

11 THE COURT: Is that already set?

12 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, because my wife and I,
13 you know, her job and my job, we took it at the same time.

14 THE COURT: I see. Traveling anywhere interesting?

15 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Maybe Niagara Falls or 16 Canada.

17 THE COURT: You have not decided about going away
18 anywhere?

19 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Not definite.

20 THE COURT: So, you could spend your vacation here.
21 Your wife can come and watch. She can get a course in civics.

22 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Get my wife to sit on the 23 jury, too.

24 THE COURT: Thank you.

25 Juror No. 90. You had an uncle who was in prison,

1 yes?

2 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

3 THE COURT: Do you know anything about the case --

4 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

5 THE COURT: -- the uncle's case?

6 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

7 THE COURT: How long ago was that? Do you know
8 anything?

9 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I just know he was in 10 prison.

11 THE COURT: Anything about that that you think would
12 affect your ability to be fair in this case?

13 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

14 THE COURT: You mentioned, as well, that you had 15 some experiences, as well. You're recovering also from 16 alcohol? Yes?

17 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

18 THE COURT: Seven years in recovery?

19 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

20 THE COURT: Congratulations.

21 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Thank you.

22 THE COURT: Is there anything about the experiences
23 that you have had and the charges here that you think would
24 affect your ability to be fair and impartial?

25 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

1 THE COURT: And you mentioned that you felt that the
2 defendants have the burden of proof?

3 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes. That was a mistake.

4 THE COURT: It's a mistake?

5 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

6 THE COURT: Okay. You heard my explanation --

7 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

8 THE COURT: -- earlier. And you can follow that 9 instruction that the burden of proof is always on the 10 government?

11 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

12 THE COURT: Thank you.

13 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Thank you.

14 THE COURT: And Juror No. 93. Hello.

15 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Hello.

16 THE COURT: You said that you weren't sure about the 17 fact that since the defendants are charged with distributing
18 illegal drugs, you weren't sure how that might affect you.
19 So, you've been sitting here for a while. Have you given it
20 any thought as to whether or not it would?

21 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, because I have a family
22 member who was abusing drugs, and I kind of have mixed
23 feelings about being underneath that scrutiny, about having 24 that judgment to judge somebody. So, I'm not sure if I could 25 be able to give a good judgment or be fair.

1 THE COURT: Are you telling me that you have
2 concerns about the ability to sit in judgment of other people?

3 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm sorry.

4 THE COURT: I'm trying to understand your statement.

5 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm just saying that I have
6 known somebody who did abuse drugs, and I find that somebody
7 who distributes drugs, I don't know if I could make the right
8 judgment to say if they are innocent. So, I wasn't sure if I
9 can actually be fair. I have a lot of mixed feelings towards
10 somebody who would distribute drugs, because I went through a
11 lot with that person who I know, who actually abused drugs.
12 So, I'm not sure if I could make a fair judgment.

13 THE COURT: I see.

14 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I have a lot of animosity.

15 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

16 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: And one other thing I just 17 wanted to tell you. You said to mention about hardship. I
18 also have a financial hardship to actually serve as a juror.

19 THE COURT: Okay. Are you working now?

20 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

21 THE COURT: And do you get paid?

22 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Not for jury duty, no.

23 THE COURT: Are you the only one working in your 24 home?

25 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

1 THE COURT: Your husband is working?

2 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

3 THE COURT: So, why would this be a financial
4 hardship?

5 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Because whatever the court
6 provides is not as much as I need, as my salary can provide
7 for me.

8 THE COURT: What do you do?

9 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm a provider in a day
10 care.

11 THE COURT: In day care?

12 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

13 THE COURT: Is it a private day care?

14 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

15 THE COURT: Do you take care of children in your
16 home?

17 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes. Not in my home, but
18 yes.

19 THE COURT: Thank you.

20 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: You are welcome.

21 THE COURT: Juror No. 95. You wanted to mention
22 something earlier?

23 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Actually, two things.
24 First, when I wrote the papers, I didn't have eyeglasses. I
25 think I did some mistakes, because I have to put the paper far

1 from my eyes.

2 MR. HERMAN: We can't hear him.

3 THE COURT: He thinks he might have made some 4 mistakes, because he didn't have his glasses with him and he
5 needs his glasses.

6 And you also indicated that you have difficulty
7 reading or understanding English?

8 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm actually a medical 9 doctor in my country. I came here, but the problem is with 10 English. It takes time for me to pass the medical exam, and I
11 am waiting to study the boards, and the problem is reading
12 quickly and listening. I'm just confused.

13 THE COURT: You're a physician's assistant?

14 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. I am a physician in my 15 country. But assist -- not assistant, assisting other
16 physicians in medical records. Not medical assistant. In the 17 medical records, in paperwork.

18 THE COURT: So, you are doing paperwork?

19 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Now, I am taking care of two 20 old ladies and two children, taking care of them. But I am a
21 doctor.

22 THE COURT: Whose children are you taking care of?

23 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: My sister's.

24 THE COURT: You didn't put that down on the 25 questionnaire. How old are the children?

1 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Six and seven.

2 THE COURT: Since when have you been taking care of 3 them?

4 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: About seven years. Seven
5 years.

6 THE COURT: I'm sorry?

7 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Seven years. I'm taking
8 care of them for seven years.

9 THE COURT: For seven years?

10 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

11 THE COURT: You didn't write that down over here.
12 Thank you.

13 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I want to add something.

14 THE COURT: Yes.

15 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I am fasting now for 16 Ramadan. I am fasting Ramadan. So, I think I'm hypoglycemic.
17 I cannot stay to five and eight hours without drinking.

18 THE COURT: When is the feast for Ramadan over?

19 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It just started yesterday.

20 THE COURT: It just started yesterday?

21 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

22 THE COURT: What do you do during the feast --
23 during the fast?

24 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: We stop drinking and eating.

25 THE COURT: Okay. Is there any -- I know for the

1 Jews, for Yom Kippur, when they fast for that one day, there
2 are exceptions for people who have medical conditions and for
3 pregnant ladies and young children and the very elderly,
4 people who have any kind of medical issues. There's no such
5 exception in Ramadan?

6 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: There's an exception, yes.

7 THE COURT: If you feel like you need to eat, is 8 that the problem?

9 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: And drinking. And drinking.

10 THE COURT: So, you need to drink water?

11 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

12 THE COURT: Okay.

13 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: But I cannot drink water.

14 THE COURT: You just told me that there is an
15 exception in Ramadan for people who have a medical condition.

16 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Not everybody. Not 17 everybody.

18 THE COURT: But you're just telling me that you have 19 a fear that you are hypoglycemic, and you need to drink and 20 eat.

21 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Everybody would be
22 hypoglycemic.

23 THE COURT: This would happen to you whether you are 24 at home or here; right?

25 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

1 THE COURT: So, what would you do at home?

2 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Still, I stay fasting.

3 THE COURT: How does that affect you sitting here,
4 because you would just be sitting here?

5 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Just the concentration. You
6 have headaches and you cannot concentrate.

7 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you.

8 Juror No. 96. Hi.

9 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Hello.

10 THE COURT: I have a few questions for follow-up
11 with you. Like some of your fellow jurors, you have people in 12 your family who also suffered from drug abuse, as well. How 13 do you think that might affect your ability to sit in this
14 particular case? You mentioned a cousin who is in jail
15 because of drug use, as well.

16 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't think it will impact
17 my understanding of the case.

18 THE COURT: I guess the question is whether -- it's 19 impossible for us to tell you, Don't ever think about that or 20 don't remember that. The question is, whether you can somehow
21 push that off to the side and decide this case just on the 22 facts that are received here in the courtroom, and not let 23 those feelings kind of inject themselves into whatever
24 decision you might make as a juror in this case. Would you be 25 able to do that?

1 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

2 THE COURT: You also mentioned that we need to have
3 tougher gun laws and eliminate them from the streets, and you
4 have some strong feelings about drugs and guns. And, again,
5 there may be some testimony about guns being used during the 6 course of this case to kill at least a couple of individuals,
7 and that it was in connection with a narcotics conspiracy.
8 You got the drugs and guns together. Are your feelings that
9 strong that you feel you couldn't set them aside and decide
10 this case on the facts and the law?

11 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: My feelings are pretty
12 strong against that type. You know, again, I can understand
13 facts and be able to make a decision on those facts.

14 THE COURT: To put it a different way: We 15 understand that people come here with strong feelings about 16 things, and it's taken however many years on this earth to be 17 who you are. The purpose of the jury is to decide whether or 18 not the government has sufficient proof to prove the charges
19 against the defendant beyond a reasonable doubt. It's not the 20 time to make a statement about the drug laws or the gun laws
21 or to seek retribution for whatever may have happened to loved
22 ones. You can understand that difference, of jury duty from 23 the other avenues we have available to do that. The voting
24 booth. We can vote. We can demonstrate. We can do all kinds
25 of other things. You understand that?

1 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I understand.

2 THE COURT: You mentioned that you have a demanding
3 work schedule and you had vacations planned already with the 4 family, as well as work travel for business trips. But you
5 didn't tell us what the time frames were.

6 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm on a team of thirty-five
7 people in the banking industry. So, I will have a lot of 8 vacation coverage for my team over the next couple of months.
9 That's just how we operate.

10 THE COURT: So, I'm trying to understand. What do
11 you mean by that?

12 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: When someone else is out on 13 their vacation for the summer, then I have to fill in for 14 them. Someone else would be out, and we all fill in for each
15 other for vacation, summer vacations.

16 THE COURT: I see. Well, if you were out here,
17 would somebody be able to cover for you?

18 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: For a day here and a day
19 there, yes. It gets harder when it's for an extended period
20 of time. Like we schedule our vacations, so we don't overlap,
21 my manager and my direct reports. My vacation is scheduled
22 for the last two weeks in August, and then my boss is the two 23 weeks prior to that, and my other guys are now. It's kind of 24 all scheduled and predetermined.

25 THE COURT: Your vacation with your family is the

1 last two weeks of August?

2 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

3 THE COURT: That should not interfere, your family
4 vacation should not interfere. You mentioned you have work
5 travel for business, as well. When is that? Do you have that 6 scheduled already?

7 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: In September.

8 THE COURT: That should not be a problem.

9 So, the question is the coverage for work, but it
10 sounds like you have a lot of people in your department?

11 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I do. Not everybody can 12 cover what I can cover.

13 THE COURT: Whether do you do exactly?

14 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I manage the team, and it's 15 a banking operation.

16 THE COURT: What do you mean by "banking operation"?

17 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Confirming trades, effect
18 trades, my market trades, confirming trades, making payments,
19 doing wire transfers.

20 THE COURT: Thank you.

21 MR. HERMAN: Could your Honor follow up on questions
22 42 and 43, please?

23 MR. RINALDO: 46, as well, your Honor.

24 THE COURT: Sure.

25 So, you've heard me talk about the presumption of

1 innocence; right, that the defendants are presumed innocent,
2 and that they cannot be convicted unless the jury unanimously,
3 and based solely on the evidence in this case and the law as I
4 give it, the jury decides that the government has proven their
5 guilt beyond a reasonable doubt. And the defendants have no
6 burden of proof at all. You indicated that you could accept
7 the rule of law, but then you said you think so.

8 Can you elaborate on that? Can you follow that rule
9 of law?

10 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes. I understand the law
11 and how it needs to be proven. But obviously, yeah, I think
12 so, was more about everyone has a presumption, the mind
13 wandered to whether someone -- those questions kind of talk
14 about are they guilty or did they do it, and that's why the 15 charge is against them. You don't know until you hear all the 16 evidence.

17 THE COURT: Right. Exactly right.

18 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

19 THE COURT: The defendants are presumed innocent.
20 Right now, they are presumed innocent, and we have not heard
21 any evidence, and so that's really where the jury should be at 22 this point. The jury should not be speculating that just 23 because there was an indictment or anything of the sort or the 24 fact that we are here right now to determine whether or not 25 they are guilty, because there's been no presentation of

1 evidence, you have not heard my instructions on the law, and
2 importantly, the jury hasn't gotten together and started to
3 deliberate on the facts and on the evidence presented and on
4 the law and applying those facts to the law as I give it.
5 That's the key.

6 So, would you be able to follow that instruction and
7 give these defendants the presumption of innocence?

8 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

9 THE COURT: Again, the same thing with the 10 indictment. The fact that the indictment exists is not proof
11 of anything. Would you be able to accept that?

12 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

13 THE COURT: At the time that you filled out the 14 questionnaire, you indicated that you had an opinion that the 15 defendants were guilty of the crimes charged. You indicated
16 that there was probably strong evidence against them.
17 Understanding my explanation on the law, do you still hold to 18 that answer?

19 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

20 THE COURT: So, you understand, again, that they are 21 presumed innocent at this point in time?

22 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

23 THE COURT: Also, you said that you didn't think
24 that you could follow the Court's instructions. For the 25 lawyers, question 51. Do you still feel that way at this

1 point?

2 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: If I could follow the
3 Court's instructions?

4 THE COURT: Yes.

5 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. I feel I can.

6 THE COURT: You can?

7 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

8 THE COURT: And there was a question -- you heard me
9 talk to some of the other jurors earlier today -- about people
10 who may be testifying here with a cooperation agreement, who
11 maybe have been accomplices during the course of the crimes
12 charged in the indictment. And you indicated that you had a 13 belief or opinion that might affect your ability to evaluate 14 testimony from such witnesses. You said that people lie. I
15 suppose that's true about everybody, not just people who may 16 have actually been part of the crime.

17 But perhaps you can elaborate on your answer?

18 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm sorry. What was the 19 question, again?

20 THE COURT: The question was about evidence in this 21 case that might include information provided or obtained from 22 individuals who participated in some of the crimes charged in 23 the indictment. So, sometimes they are called cooperators or 24 accomplice witnesses, and they have pled guilty and are 25 testifying pursuant to cooperation agreements with the

1 government in the hope that their own sentences might be
2 reduced. And it is permissible for the government to present
3 such witnesses and for a jury to rely on their testimony in 4 reaching a verdict, obviously depending on whether the jury
5 believes the witness or not.

6 So, the question is whether you have any beliefs or 7 opinions that would affect your ability to evaluate the 8 testimony of those witnesses fairly and impartially? You
9 indicated, yes, and then you said, People lie. So, I would 10 like to hear from you what you mean by that.

11 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I guess that's based off of 12 the evidence; right? So, the evidence or the testimony would
13 make me decide which way I felt it was going as to whether I
14 believed it or not, was based off the evidence.

15 THE COURT: Let me put it this way: You are in 16 banking and you do a lot of transactions and you have to rely 17 on information that you get from your co-workers and from 18 other sources; right?

19 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Correct.

20 THE COURT: When you talk to these people, you have 21 to make a decision every time you talk to them or even in 22 other areas of your personal life about whether they are lying
23 to you or not -- right?

24 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

25 THE COURT: -- in order to make important decisions;

1 right?

2 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

3 THE COURT: So, this is no different. The jury will
4 be looking at the witnesses and listening to them and making a
5 determination based on everything that you hear as to whether 6 or not you're going to believe that witness either completely
7 or in part. Would you be able to do that fairly and 8 impartially?

9 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

10 THE COURT: You mentioned that you thought it would
11 be difficult to avoid the news media. You heard me talk about 12 that earlier. If you happen to hear anything about this case, 13 would you be able to turn it off, turn the page, not look at 14 it and ignore it?

15 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, as long as it's just 16 about this case.

17 THE COURT: We're not telling you to close off from 18 the rest of the world, but we are also asking you not to do
19 any kind of research about anything connected with this case
20 or any of the people connected with this case. That even 21 includes things like just sort of generally what are trials
22 about or principles of law and things of that nature, because 23 that's going to come from me. That information is going to 24 come from me, and you have to follow the law as I give it and 25 whatever explanations I give. And I will give the jury some

1 explanation about trial procedures to help you follow along.
2 Right? Right now, I have not seen anyone here who is a
3 lawyer. We have a legal secretary. Maybe she has some idea
4 of what the process is. I will be giving instructions about 5 that. So, would you be able to refrain from doing any kind of 6 research or any investigation?

7 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

8 THE COURT: You also mentioned that you would have a
9 hard time not to sympathize and you tend to be emotionally
10 engaged. I kind of wanted to hear from you what you mean by 11 that.

12 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, it's a different
13 mindset, sitting on a jury. When you're reading the newspaper
14 at home, you can make your judgments based off of what you are 15 reading or listening to the TV. It's a different mindset. In 16 other words, you don't have -- you're not right or wrong,
17 because it's usually something that you can't impact. So, to 18 me, it's a different mindset, to sit on a jury and now to be 19 completely impartial and hold your judgment and wait for it.
20 It's not something that I have sat on a jury before, so it
21 doesn't come naturally.

22 THE COURT: You never sat on a jury before?

23 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

24 THE COURT: Okay. In a way, you are right. It is 25 not natural. Like I said before, we have different rules for

1 the courtroom than what you have out in the real world, so to
2 speak. My example about the two kids and the lamp; right?
3 The bottom line is, will you be able to reach whatever
4 decision you reach without letting any kind of bias or 5 prejudices or emotions or sympathies play a role in that
6 decision?

7 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

8 THE COURT: Thank you.

9 Juror No. 99. You have a job that's pending towards 10 the end of July; correct?

11 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

12 THE COURT: Are you the only person that's working
13 in your home?

14 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No. My wife works.

15 THE COURT: Your wife works?

16 And how hard would the hardship be for you?

17 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: My wife was out of work for 18 four years. She just started working. So, I'm fifty-nine
19 now. All right. It's not going to be easy to find a job.
20 So, I have to start looking. I already tried for something
21 in-house. I went for an interview. There's seven other
22 people going for it. I have a friend from California called
23 up, he has a niece that might have a lead on something out --
24 another position I'm going to check out. Right now, as of 25 July 25, I'm out, no job.

1 THE COURT: Does the job that you are at, do they
2 pay you for jury duty?

3 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

4 THE COURT: They do?

5 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

6 THE COURT: You also had some cousins who had issues
7 with drugs?

8 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

9 THE COURT: Anything about that that you think would
10 affect your ability to be fair and impartial?

11 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

12 THE COURT: You mentioned that you would feel a need
13 to hear from the defendants, that you would be inclined to 14 think that they were guilty if they didn't speak for 15 themselves. You heard me have discussions now about what the 16 law is. Do you still feel that way?

17 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I have to hear the whole
18 case. If the whole case went along and it seemed like the 19 defendant could get up and it would appear that they would 20 need to get up and defend themselves and they were not going
21 up on the stand, I have a hard time finding them innocent,
22 okay. That's just me. That's the way I really feel. I mean,
23 there are probably instances where they don't need to go up
24 there, and there are instances when they should be up there.
25 I guess that's just my feelings.

1 THE COURT: You heard me mention that they don't
2 have any burden of proof. The burden of proof rests entirely
3 on the government.

4 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I agree. I hear that. I
5 understand that. But if the government brings a strong case
6 to the point where I think someone should be coming up and
7 defending themselves, at least I would, it doesn't look good
8 for the defense, but the government would have to bring a
9 strong case.

1 THE COURT: Thank you.

2 Juror 100, good afternoon.

3 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Afternoon.

4 THE COURT: You have a son-in-law who is NYPD?

5 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

6 THE COURT: Still working?

7 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, six years on the force.

8 THE COURT: Do you get to talk to your son-in-law
9 about the job he does?

10 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I will ask him how it is 11 going and things of that nature.

12 THE COURT: But not in any real detail?

13 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

14 THE COURT: About like what he actually does out in 15 the street or whatever?

16 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: He was just recently
17 reassigned to another position. So, in that case, you know, 18 he told me.

19 THE COURT: Is there anything about the fact that 20 your son-in-law is a police officer that would affect your
21 ability to be fair and impartial?

22 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

23 THE COURT: Will you be able to follow the 24 instructions I give about not giving an officer more weight or 25 less weight just because they are police officers?

- Proceedings -

166

1 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

2 THE COURT: And, do you have an uncle who is a
3 lawyer? Did that uncle ever work in criminal law?

4 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

5 THE COURT: And, you had your mom, was in a pretty
6 nasty purse snatch. Did they ever arrest the person?

7 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

8 THE COURT: How do you feel about the way -- you
9 were pretty young then?

10 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I was young, I witnessed the 11 whole thing.

12 THE COURT: You witnessed the whole thing.

13 How do you feel about the way the police handled it?

14 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, it happened in the 15 street, so someone in the house called the police. They came.
16 They took a statement. We rode around in the general area.
17 The purse was found a couple of miles away and nothing really
18 was ever solved.

19 THE COURT: So nobody was ever arrested for it or 20 prosecuted for it?

21 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

22 THE COURT: Is there anything about that experience
23 that you think would affect your ability to be fair and
24 impartial?

25 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

- Proceedings -

167

1 THE COURT: And, you also mentioned you have strong
2 beliefs about gun control. Would you be able to follow my
3 instructions on the law?

4 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right. On the law, sure.

5 THE COURT: And, as I said before, there maybe
6 testimony about use of guns in this case. Would your views in 7 any way affect your ability to be fair and impartial here?

8 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

9 THE COURT: And, you mentioned in the questionnaire
10 that you felt that because of the defendants were arrested,
11 they must be guilty, that there must have been a reason for 12 the arrest.

13 Now, you have heard my explanation and a little bit
14 more detail than what you could get in the questionnaires.

15 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: When I was answering the 16 questionnaire, all I was thinking was, the fact that there was 17 an arrest. There had to be a reason. I understand, the 18 prosecutors would have to --

19 THE COURT: Prove the case.

20 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Substantiate it. Prove it.

21 THE COURT: That is a much higher standard, right.
22 So the government is going to have to prove the case beyond a
23 reasonable doubt which is a high standard.

24 And of course, the jury would have to make sure that 25 they presented all the proof and then apply it to the law as I

- Proceedings -

168

1 give it. You may find that maybe the government did not meet
2 its burden. In which case, the jury would have to find the 3 defendants not guilty if that were the case.

4 Would you be able to follow those rules of law?

5 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

6 THE COURT: Thank you.

7 Juror 102.

8 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Hello.

9 THE COURT: And you just started a new job.

10 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes. I just graduated for 11 my master's in social work at the end of May. So right now,
12 I'm just working at a social service agency and I'm covering
13 for a social worker out on maternity leave until the end of 14 August.

15 THE COURT: So, how did you manage to be able to 16 have vacation the first week of August?

17 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Because it was an agreement
18 I worked out with-- it was the agency I am at is where I was 19 interning. So I knew someone and told her that before I got 20 the position. She was going to be my supervisor.

21 THE COURT: Thank you.

22 Juror 105. Good afternoon.

23 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Afternoon.

24 THE COURT: You just started a job in 25 communications, right, for a non profit?

- Proceedings -

169

1 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah, it was about I guess
2 coming up, it will be two years in September.

3 THE COURT: Were you working before that or were you
4 studying before that?

5 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I was working before that.

6 THE COURT: What did you do before that?

7 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Before that I had-- I was
8 living in Mexico for a brief time. I had founded a non profit
9 there and that was for, I guess about between a year and a
10 half and two years. Before that I was working on a political 11 issue campaign, mostly related to the environment.

12 THE COURT: Related to?

13 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: The environment.

14 THE COURT: To the environment.

15 You did live in Bushwick at some point in time of 16 your life, is that recent?

17 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes. I lived there for 18 two years from February of 2012 to March of this year.

19 THE COURT: Did any of the locations that were 20 listed in the schedule sound familiar to you?

21 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Besides just general
22 recognition of the street names?

23 THE COURT: Yes.

24 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Nothing other than they are 25 in the neighborhood, no.

- Proceedings -

170

1 THE COURT: You have a girlfriend's mother who
2 worked for sometime in the legal field in what capacity, do
3 you know?

4 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I'm not really sure. She
5 has since retired.

6 THE COURT: Okay.

7 You had an uncle who was a victim of a robbery, do
8 you know any details about what happened?

9 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I know he was on the subway
10 on the way to the airport and the doors had opened and someone 11 had snatched his bag. I know that he reported it to the 12 police and that is the extent of what I know about it.

13 THE COURT: How do you feel about the response of 14 the police?

15 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I guess I don't know enough
16 about what they did to respond to comment on it. But, I did
17 not hear anything further from my uncle about it.

18 THE COURT: Thank you.

19 Juror 106. Good afternoon.

20 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Afternoon.

21 THE COURT: What is the highest grade that you
22 completed in school? You didn't answer that question. The 23 highest grade that you completed in school?

24 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: My school?

25 THE COURT: You went to school in your country in

- Proceedings -

171

1 Haiti?

2 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah.

3 THE COURT: What is the highest grade that you
4 completed in Haiti?

5 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I finished, the last one.

6 THE COURT: So, that would-- would it be like high
7 school here in the United States?

8 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

9 THE COURT: What would it be like, college?

10 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No.

11 THE COURT: How many years altogether?

12 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: What?

13 THE COURT: How many years altogether did you go to 14 school?

15 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: In my country?

16 THE COURT: In your country.

17 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Like 16 years.

18 THE COURT: You went to school for 16 years?

19 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: For 16 years.

20 THE COURT: And how long have you been in the United
21 States?

22 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Nine years.

23 THE COURT: And you mentioned that you have some
24 difficulty with English, yeah?

25 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah, because I never go to

- Proceedings -

172

1 school.

2 THE COURT: You mean in the United States.

3 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I go to school-- but if you
4 plus almost every Saturday, three weeks like that. For--
5 every Saturday during four months. If you plus every 6 Saturday, one Saturday, one Saturday, it will be two,
7 three weeks like that maybe.

8 THE COURT: So you only went to school, certain days
9 of the week?

10 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, only Saturday.

11 THE COURT: Only Saturday you went to school.

12 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Because I work five days.

13 THE COURT: You were working and then going to 14 school at the same time?

15 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Go to school, yeah.

16 THE COURT: I see.

17 Are you married?

18 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah.

19 THE COURT: Does your wife work?

20 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah.

21 THE COURT: Do you know what she does?

22 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Mental work-- mental 23 worker-- I don't exactly know. But I know she learn mental 24 health-- because before me, I was in Haiti when she -- when 25 she learned.

- Proceedings -

173

1 THE COURT: She went to school here?

2 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yeah, like that.

3 THE COURT: And, she works in the mental health
4 field?

5 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Not really, no, because now
6 she got another job, but I don't know exactly what-- I know
7 she work with the-- somebody when you confused like that. But
8 I don't know exactly.

9 THE COURT: And when you talk to your wife, what
10 language do you speak with your wife?

11 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: My wife speak with me both--
12 this is my mistake, too much thinking in my country about,
13 news, about admission like about football, soccer. But this
14 is my mistake. My wife always complain about that. And I'm 15 supposed to watch more T.V. than go to the computer and 16 studying something and about Haiti. Because this is my 17 mistake.

18 THE COURT: Does she speak to you in French or in --

19 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: English, French, French when 20 you go to school and Creole in the room. When you in the 21 room, I speak Creole. But all my 16 years, at school, only 22 French.

23 THE COURT: Okay.

24 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: But she used to speak
25 English every time with me.

- Proceedings -

174

1 THE COURT: I see. Thank you.

2 Number 117. Good afternoon.

3 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Afternoon.

4 THE COURT: You and some of your friends were
5 victims of an assault and did that get reported to the police?

6 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

7 THE COURT: Did anybody get arrested for it?

8 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

9 THE COURT: How do you feel about the way that the
10 police handled your situation?

11 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It was about 10 years ago so
12 both myself and the assailants were minors. So, they didn't 13 have any prior record, so there was really not a lot that the 14 Court was able to do in terms of, you know, punishment I
15 suppose.

16 So, you know, I was just kind of in the wrong place
17 at the wrong time. So I hadn't really done anything to 18 deserve that. And they didn't get anything for doing it. So
19 I was not thrilled about it, but what are you going to do.

20 THE COURT: Well, is there anything about that
21 experience that you think would affect your ability to be fair
22 and impartial here?

23 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, I don't think so.

24 THE COURT: And you had a small claims case. Did
25 you have to-- did you bring the case yourself?

- Proceedings -

175

1           THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Well, yeah as something that
2 happened during the assault, my orbital floor was fractured.
3 I had a number of medical bills that were not covered by
4 anything. So, you know, we didn't -- we consulted with an
5 attorney that said, again, since the person, the assailant was 6 minor, really had no assets, would not be in our best
7 interests to go to civil court. Our best bet was to try on 8 our own in small claims court. So we did, you know, we just 9 took the case ourselves to the small claims court.

10           THE COURT: Were you successful?

11           THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Partially, sure.

12           THE COURT: Did you get something?

13           THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I got something.

14           THE COURT: You got something.

15           THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: It didn't pay for everything
16 but it was better than nothing.

17           THE COURT: And again, anything about that other
18 experience of taking this matter yourself to court, that you
19 think would affect your ability to be fair and impartial?

20           THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, I don't think so.

21           THE COURT: You have a brother who has been involved
22 with marijuana and molly.

23           THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

24           THE COURT: You were concerned that that might 25 somehow impact on your views on people who provide drugs.

- Proceedings -

176

1 Could you talk a little bit about that?

2 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, some of that stuff is
3 very recent and kind of ongoing. Something that my family has
4 been dealing with, that he has been going through. So, it
5 is-- you know, it is something that is in our day-to-day
6 lives. So whenever there is mention of drugs, people being 7 involved in drugs is not-- doesn't fill you with rainbows and 8 butterflies.

9 THE COURT: So, is it something that is so fresh and 10 so present that you think it might spill over and impact on 11 your ability to be fair and impartial here, given the nature
12 of the charges?

13 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I mean, you know, I would 14 like to think I'm a reasonable person, to be able to fairly
15 listen to the testimony and things like that. I do also want
16 to be honest. You asked if there is something in my history
17 that is involved with drugs that might have an impact on how 18 I'm viewing things. I mean it is possible just because it is 19 something that is fresh and recent.

20 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

21 You heard me talk about these witnesses that are 22 called cooperating witnesses or accomplice witnesses. Would 23 you again be able to follow the Court's instructions on the 24 law in connection with those witnesses?

25 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

- Proceedings -

177

1 THE COURT: Basically we are just asking you to use
2 your common sense when you evaluate their testimony and it is
3 testimony that you have to look at with great care obviously.

4 Would you be able to do that?

5 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

6 THE COURT: Thank you.

7 Juror 127. Hi.

8 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Good afternoon.

9 THE COURT: You have travel plans.

10 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

11 THE COURT: Do you actually have travel plans?

12 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, it is finalized.

13 THE COURT: It was finalized.

14 When are you travelling?

15 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: The last two weeks of July,
16 the first week Hilton Head, South Carolina and followed by 17 Myrtle Beach.

18 THE COURT: I have been there, it is pretty. I have 19 not been there when it is really nice though. In March it is 20 still a little cold.

21 You golf?

22 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

23 THE COURT: Thank you.

24 Juror 128.

25 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Afternoon.

- Proceedings -

178

1 THE COURT: Good afternoon.

2 You have been retired for one year. What did you
3 retire from?

4 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I was a scanner for a
5 reproduction company.

6 THE COURT: How long were you with them?

7 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Gosh, more than 25 years.

8 THE COURT: You also have a sister who was
9 pickpocketed on the subway. Was that reported to the police?

10 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes, I believe it was. I
11 wasn't there at the time.

12 THE COURT: Do you know anything about whether 13 anyone was arrested or--

14 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, I don't.

15 THE COURT: Anything about how your sister feels
16 about the way the police reacted to it?

17 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: She is fine. They did what 18 they could because the guy probably got away right after he 19 did it and off the train.

20 THE COURT: You also have a brother-in-law who has 21 had some issues with alcohol. Is he in recovery at all?

22 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: No, he passed on.

23 THE COURT: I'm sorry to hear that.

24 Is there anything about that that you think would
25 affect your ability to be fair and impartial in this case?

- Proceedings -

179

1 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: I don't think so.

2 THE COURT: And, in connection again with
3 cooperating witnesses or accomplice witnesses, you checked
4 off, yes, that you might have some beliefs or opinions that 5 might affect your ability to evaluate the testimony from such
6 witnesses fairly and impartially.

7 You have heard the discussions that I have had with
8 some of the other jurors. Given those instructions, do you
9 think that you can evaluate the testimony of such witnesses
10 fairly and impartially?

11 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

12 THE COURT: Thank you.

13 Last but not least, juror 136. Thank you for your 14 patience.

15 Same question, with respect to cooperating witnesses
16 who are testifying pursuant to a cooperation agreement. You
17 said that the person might say anything for a sentence
18 reduction. You have heard my instructions and given my 19 instructions would you be able to evaluate their testimony
20 fairly and impartially?

21 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

22 THE COURT: I mean, obviously if a person has a
23 cooperation agreement, whether or not they have an interest in 24 the outcome of the case, or they might be getting something in 25 return, obviously is something that the jury can take into

- Proceedings -

180

1 consideration in determining somebody's credibility. It also
2 doesn't necessarily mean that the person is not telling the 3 truth either.

4 So, the question is, you have to look at everything
5 together, right? All in its totality.

6 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: In the full context.

7 THE COURT: Exactly, in the full context.

8 Would you be able to do that?

9 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

10 THE COURT: And apply the law that I give to you on 11 that?

12 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

13 THE COURT: You have some vacation plan for when 14 exactly?

15 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: August 24th.

16 THE COURT: For the whole.

17 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: The whole week.

18 THE COURT: The whole week.

19 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Timeshare.

20 THE COURT: It is a timeshare?

21 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Yes.

22 THE COURT: You should be okay for that time.

23 So, I will tell you what I'm going to do. I'm going
24 to let you guys stretch your feet a little bit while I
25 conference with the lawyers for a little bit.

- Proceedings -

181

1           So, why don't you come back say at 4:15. Okay. And
2 we will talk to you some more.

3           Remember that you can't talk about the case among
4 yourselves or with anybody else. Not even about the voir
5 dire, nothing that we have discussed here.

6           You can't read or listen to or look at or do any
7 kind of research over any kind of media. And try to be back
8 here promptly at 4:15. We will resume with you right away.

9           Remember not to come in until somebody from my staff
10 goes and gets you.

11           (Jurors left the courtroom.)

12           THE COURT: Why don't you all take a few minutes to 13 caucus and figure out what you want.

14           (Recess.)

15           THE COURT: You are okay with going forward without 16 your clients being here?

17           MR. RUSSELL: Yes.

18           THE COURT: We did it at the sidebar anyway.

19           So, let's get going.

20           For the record, the defendants have just stepped 21 away to take a nature break. The lawyers are all here for 22 both sides. The jury is not here.

23           So, challenges for cause, as to number 52?

24           MR. HERMAN: None from the defendant.

25           MR. AMATRUDA: No, Your Honor.

- Proceedings -

182

1 THE COURT: I want to make sure I hear from all the
2 defendants. Is that okay Mr. Russell and Mr. Jasper?

3 MR. RUSSELL: Yes.

4 THE COURT: Juror 56. I have as okay. Is she okay
5 for everybody?

6 MS. FARHADIAN: Yes.

7 MR. RINALDO: Yes, I'm-- I will sit back down. For
8 cause on 56, Judge. I just wanted to point out, her answers
9 were they have to punish. They have to be punished for what
10 they did to other people. Grand Jury means go to jail.

11 When you questioned her on those, the first response
12 was, it is-- it depends. And then I think continuing, she 13 said, again, when questioned, she expanded and said, it
14 depends on the case and what the charges are.

15 Then finally, when you asked her if she could be 16 fair after a further explanation, she finally said, she can 17 accept it. I think it was just-- it took like three tries to 18 get there. And, I think it is sufficient for cause.

19 And also, Judge, she mentioned-- you did question
20 her a lot about this. The fear of gangs that she has about 21 coming home late at night and that seemed to be something in 22 the front of her mind.

23 I think a combination, Judge, we would ask for cause
24 on that.

25 THE COURT: People? Government?

- Proceedings -

183

1 MS. FARHADIAN: We disagree.

2 MR. AMATRUDA: I answer to both. Old habits die
3 heard.

4 MR. RINALDO: You cannot do that.

5 THE COURT: It comes out.

6 MS. FARHADIAN: The people disagree. We thought
7 that she said quite clearly that she would accept the Court's
8 instructions. She certainly required some instruction. I
9 think that is clear. But she seemed to listen carefully and 10 to understand.

11 She also addressed the question of being afraid at 12 night directly. It had to do with her commute and her
13 neighborhood. But she said that would not carry over into her
14 ability to evaluate the case.

15 THE COURT: I agree. The challenge for cause is 16 denied. She will stay.

17 59. Her big issue was the language issue.

18 MR. RINALDO: I was hoping we would have consent on 19 that juror. I think the problem was, it was pretty 20 significant.

21 MS. FARHADIAN: Again, Your Honor, we disagree. I
22 think that she is one of those people who is hard on herself,
23 but she has a college degree in child psychology from a
24 country whose official national language is English. Said the 25 instructions was in both Hindi and English. She also seemed

- Proceedings -

184

1 to be able to converse with the Court comfortably. Certainly
2 at the level necessary to accomplish jury service.

3 MR. JASPER: Judge, I agree with co-counsel. I
4 think there was a significant language problem here. She
5 speaks to the children in Hindi. She is in a-- she is a
6 housewife, which is nothing-- by the way, wrong with that.
7 That is working in the home. But, she clearly seemed to have
8 problems communicating with the Court. The notion also that 9 India, the official language is English, there are hundreds of 10 languages in that country and I think English is one way of 11 just kind of avoiding a lot of disputes.

12 She herself said that the college that she went to,
13 taught in both English and Hindi. I think it was 14 predominantly Hindi is what she actually said.

15 THE COURT: The challenge for cause is granted.
16 Number 60.

17 MR. RUSSELL: Your Honor, we maybe heard as to 18 number 60.

19 THE COURT: Yes.

20 MR. RUSSELL: When you look at her questionnaire on 21 the face, it appears that there may not be a problem.
22 However, when the Court questioned her as to hearing evidence
23 to decide whether guilt or innocence. I'm trying to see what 24 question that was.

25 That dialogue that went on.

- Proceedings -

185

1 THE COURT: 46.

2 MR. RUSSELL: The dialogue that went on between her
3 and the Court it became apparent at least to me, she was 4 questionable as to whether or not she needed to hear from the 5 defendants in reference to proving their innocence.

6 And, first go around, and then the second go around
7 was even more doubtful as to what her actual answer was. She 8 was engaging with the Court and that is fine, and that just 9 meant she really understood what the Court was saying. But,
10 at the end of the day, when questioned as to whether or not 11 there needs to be evidence of innocence, she was quite 12 questionable. Her response was not, well, they don't have to 13 take the stand. Her response was not firm in that, I will 14 listen to the evidence and let the evidence decide. It was 15 questionable as to what was her standard.

16 MS. FARHADIAN: Your Honor, we thought this juror
17 did need instruction from the Court, but when the Court asked
18 her, are you able to follow the Court's instructions, and set
19 aside-- really whatever other misunderstandings or 20 preconceptions she might have had, she clearly said, yes.

21 THE COURT: I agree. On whatever misunderstanding
22 she may have had, I think she was rehabilitated so that the 23 challenge for cause is denied.

24 Number 64. The gentleman with the cane.

25 MR. AMATRUDA: Nothing from the government on him,

1 Your Honor.

2 MR. RINALDO: Nothing.

3 MR. RUSSELL: Nothing.

4 THE COURT: Okay. He is fine.

5 Juror 66 has the financial hardship that was the 6 lady with the letter.

7 MR. RINALDO: Consent, Judge.

8 MS. FARHADIAN: Yes, Your Honor.

9 MR. RUSSELL: No issue, Judge.

10 THE COURT: And number 68. She-- that was the Law
11 Secretary. She finally got out that she had a vacation week
12 on July 19th.

13 MR. RINALDO: No objection, Judge to striking her.

14 MS. FARHADIAN: Your Honor, I think it is pretty
15 clear this juror did not want to serve and once the college
16 classes reason didn't work out for her, then this vacation
17 appeared.

18 You know, I guess as a matter of principle, I find
19 it problematic. I don't quite know what to say beyond that.

20 It wasn't clear that this was a vacation that had to 21 happen. She said she got off of a wait list for a timeshare
22 the time between when she filled out the questionnaire and 23 when she came here.

24 MR. RINALDO: I think I kind of agree with 25 everything she just said. The point is, if she doesn't want

- Proceedings -

187

1 to be here, I think we have enough people that we can avoid
2 someone who really doesn't want to be here.

3 THE COURT: I agree. The defendant's cause
4 challenge is granted as to number 68.

5 Unless I hear an objection, am I correct in assuming
6 that both defense counsel are agreeing?

7 MR. RUSSELL: That is correct. We discussed before.

8 THE COURT: I wanted to make sure that the record is 9 complete.

10 Number 70.

11 MR. RINALDO: Nothing for Mr. Taylor, Judge.

12 MR. RUSSELL: No.

13 MR. AMATRUDA: Nothing from the government, Your 14 Honor.

15 THE COURT: So number 70 is okay.

16 Number 84.

17 MR. AMATRUDA: Nothing from the government, Judge.

18 MR. RUSSELL: Nothing for defense.

19 MR. RINALDO: Nothing for Mr. Taylor, Judge.

20 THE COURT: So 84 comes back.

21 Juror 86 has vacation, July 21st.

1 THE COURT: Stricken.

2 I gather, the defendants --

3 MR. RINALDO: Agree with the Court, Your Honor.

4 MR. RUSSELL: We agree.

5 THE COURT: Number 90?

6 MS. FARHADIAN: No objection.

7 THE COURT: Defendant?

8 MS. FARHADIAN: We thought he could serve.

9 THE COURT: Defendant? I thought so as well.

10 MR. RINALDO: Yes, Judge.

11 MR. RUSSELL: Yes. No objection.

12 THE COURT: So 90 is okay.

13 93?

14 MS. FARHADIAN: We move to strike this juror for 15 cause.

16 THE COURT: Is that on consent?

17 MR. RINALDO: Yes.

18 MR. RUSSELL: Yes.

19 THE COURT: There was animosity towards drug
20 dealers. Cause consent.

21 Number 95? This is the physician's assistant. You
22 talk about somebody who could really understand English. Give 23 me a break.

24 But he also came up with a million and one excuses.
25 The fasting for Ramadan.

1 Is there a consent cause here?

2 MS. FARHADIAN: Yes.

3 MR. RUSSELL: Yes.

4 MR. RINALDO: Yes.

5 THE COURT: Okay. Number 96?

6 MS. FARHADIAN: We think he can serve, Your Honor.

7 MR. HERMAN: Judge, this is a juror who when you
8 asked him publicly, he gave all the correct publicly
9 acceptable -- acceptable answers. When he was privately
10 pulling out the questionnaire, on ten occasions, drugs have 11 ruined my cousin's and my family's life. Drugs and guns, I
12 can't stand, they kill our society.

13 He thinks he can presume the innocent -- the 14 defendants innocent and he thinks he can require the 15 government to prove the case beyond a reasonable doubt.

16 So every possible way he's telling us that he really
17 has very many attitudes which are inconsistent with being a
18 fair juror, but on the other hand when he appears in court I
19 guess he wants -- doesn't want to truly tell us what he truly 20 feels.

21 THE COURT: I agree. I got a real sense from him
22 that he was -- and maybe he should have been questioned
23 privately. But I got a sense that he was just spouting
24 politically correct and not what he truly felt.

25 Challenge for cause is granted.

1 I am not sure about his financial thing. I am not
2 convinced, but the other things are of a concern.

3 Number 99? That's the juror who said he would have
4 to hear from the defendant. He was unequivocal about that.

5 Consent cause?

6 MS. FARHADIAN: Yes.

7 MR. RUSSELL: Yes.

8 MR. RINALDO: Yes, Judge.

9 MR. HERMAN: We have no issue with 100, Judge.

10 MR. RUSSELL: That is correct, Your Honor.

11 MS. FARHADIAN: We agree.

12 THE COURT: I'm sorry? Juror 100? I'm sorry?

13 MS. FARHADIAN: I think we all agree, he can serve.

14 MR. RUSSELL: No issue.

15 THE COURT: Okay. Juror 100 is okay.

16 102?

17 MS. FARHADIAN: I would think on consent, to strike
18 for cause.

19 MR. RUSSELL: Yes.

20 THE COURT: Consent cause is granted.

21 105? I think he's okay.

22 MR. HERMAN: He's okay with the defense, Judge.

23 MR. AMATRUDA: Yes, Your Honor.

24 MR. RUSSELL: Yes.

25 THE COURT: 106?

1 MS. FARHADIAN: I would think this is a consent
2 cause because of language ability.

3 MR. HERMAN: We agree.

4 MR. RUSSELL: Yes.

5 THE COURT: Consent cause.

6 I was having trouble understanding what he was 7 saying.

8 His answers were not responsive either.

9 117?

10 MR. HERMAN: He can serve, Judge.

11 MS. FARHADIAN: I'm sorry?

12 MR. HERMAN: No objection to 117.

13 THE COURT: This is the juror who was concerned that 14 his brother's addiction might -- it sort of fresh. It is 15 something that they are struggling with and it might 16 spillover. I would have thought that there would be a consent
17 cause challenge.

18 MR. JASPER: Judge, can I have a moment with 19 cocounsel?

20 THE COURT: Yes.

21 (Pause.)

22 MR. HERMAN: We will consent, Judge.

23 THE COURT: Consent cause?

24 Yes.

25 MR. RUSSELL: Yes.

1 THE COURT: That's 117.

2 127?

3 MR. RUSSELL: Vacation?

4 THE COURT: Yes, traveling the two weeks of July.

5 Consent?

6 MS. FARHADIAN: Yes.

7 MR. HERMAN: Consent.

8 THE COURT: 128 seemed okay.

9 MS. FARHADIAN: We agree.

10 MR. HERMAN: Okay with the defendants.

11 THE COURT: Okay. And 136 also seemed okay.

12 MS. FARHADIAN: Yes.

13 MR. HERMAN: Yes.

14 THE COURT: Okay. Folks, we should bring out the 15 defendants, please.

16 Folks, with respect to this particular group, I am
17 going to -- because it is late in the day and it is late for 18 the jury clerk to be able to set up the phone system, I am
19 just going to tell the people challenged for cause that they 20 are excused from this case. The other ones are to come back
21 tomorrow afternoon.

22 (The defendants are present.)

23 Along with the other folks.

24 All right. Let's go get the jury.

25 One other thing that you all should know, juror 231,

1 which is the next group that's been waiting downstairs, she
2 had child care issues and she had to leave. She may not be in 3 the order.

4 Just come right in and take the seats that you had
5 before you left the room.

6 (Prospective jury panel is now present.)

7 THE COURT: Parties are back. We are just missing
8 one lawyer, who will be back in a second. All the parties are
9 here.

10 Do the parties agree that all of our jurors are here
11 and properly seated?

12 MR. AMATRUDA: Yes, Your Honor.

13 MR. RUSSELL: Yes, Your Honor.

14 MR. HERMAN: Yes.

15 THE COURT: All right. Listen very carefully to 16 your number. All right? If I call your number, you are 17 excused. You go home. You don't have to come back. You will 18 get something in the mail to show for your jury service.

19 THE CLERK: They've been given that.

20 THE COURT: Oh, you have that already I understand.
21 You've gotten a letter already from the jury clerk?

22 Okay. She is just too efficient for me, what can I
23 say? The woman is always ready.

24 All right. Listen very carefully. If you hear your 25 number, you are excused from this case and tomorrow you can go

1 back to work and do whatever else you do in your daily life.

2 59.

4 68.

5 86.

6 93.

7 95.

8 96.

9 99.

10 102.

11 106.

12 117.

13 And 127.

14 All of you are excused. Before you leave, the rest
15 of you, okay, the rest of you are going to come back tomorrow
16 afternoon at 2:15. Okay? We are going to continue the jury
17 selection process at that time.

18 Okay? So if you heard your number called, you do
19 not have to come back. If you did not hear your number
20 called, you do have to come back and you come back at 2:15.

21 Okay? If you wanted to go to work in the morning,
22 you can go to work in the morning, as long as you are here at 23 2:15.

24 All right? So remember not to read or listen to 25 anything about this case or to talk to anybody about this case

1 or do any kind of research over any kind of media. Remember
2 not to look at anything that might be reported and not to have
3 any contact with any of the Court staff or any of the staff
4 for the parties.

5 Okay? Thank you all very much for your patience and
6 some of you --

7 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Do we have to call the 8 number after 7:00 o'clock?

9 THE COURT: No, you do not. Because I'm telling
10 you, if your number was not called you have to come back
11 tomorrow. Okay? At 2:15.

12 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: Right here?

13 THE COURT: Yes. You will report back. Wait until 14 we bring you into the courtroom.

15 I'm sorry. I am corrected. You need to go to the 16 jury room so that they can make sure that you are here so you
17 can get your letters for your daily service.

18 THE PROSPECTIVE JUROR: You mean, we have to go
19 through the same process that we went through this morning
20 first?

21 THE COURT: Correct, exactly. So you go downstairs
22 to the jury room on the second floor and then they will let us
23 know when you are all together and we will go get you.

24 Okay? All right.

25 Thank you. Thank you very much.

1           (Prospective jury panel leaves courtroom and the
2 following occurs.)

3           THE COURT: Can I just talk to counsel for one
4 second? It is now close to 20 minutes to five. By the time
5 we bring the other 40 upstairs and get them seated it will be
6 just about 5:00 o'clock. I was going to suggest that we tell
7 them to just come back at 9:30 and we will proceed tomorrow
8 morning.

9           MR. RINALDO: That's fine, Judge.

10          MR. RUSSELL: Yes, Judge.

11          THE COURT: A little bit fresh tomorrow morning.
12 Hopefully it won't take so long. I thought we would have 13 gotten through a lot faster today.

14          MR. AMATRUDA: Your Honor --

15          THE COURT: Is that okay?

16          MR. HERMAN: Yes.

17          MR. AMATRUDA: Your Honor, I just wanted to raise
18 one issue, perhaps, make one suggestion. I don't know if you
19 don't want to do it now. But the -- I think we are up to -- 20 we just finished through 139 and by our count I think we have 21 40 jurors who have not been stricken, who are in the panel or 22 who are in the -- still in the pool.

23                 So I was just going to suggest that tomorrow --

24          THE COURT: You mean precleared?

25          MR. AMATRUDA: I don't want to use that term. But

1 if you don't have -- the jurors who didn't come back for
2 questioning, who are not stricken, so we have those, and then
3 we have the ones from today, that we didn't strike. There are 4 40 now.

5 THE COURT: Right. When I use the term precleared,
6 those are the ones that none of you had follow-up questions
7 for.

8 MR. AMATRUDA: That's right.

9 THE COURT: That's who I am talking about. I think
10 we have 38.

11 MR. AMATRUDA: I was counting in order up until 139.
12 If you combine the precleared with the people up to 139.
13 Maybe I am just -- maybe I am just introducing too much
14 confusion. I was just going to suggest that once we have a 15 certain number, perhaps what we could do is exercise our 16 strikes. I think we need 43 or something like that.

17 THE COURT: We can do that too. We can go
18 through -- we can bring -- I want to make sure that I am
19 understanding because there has been way too much
20 misunderstanding.

21 MR. AMATRUDA: Yes.

22 THE COURT: We have 38 that are precleared, that 23 nobody had follow-up questions for. Those 38 -- I think they 24 are scheduled to come in in the afternoon.

25 THE CLERK: Tomorrow morning.

1 THE COURT: Tomorrow morning, I'm sorry.

2 Then we have those who were not stricken today.

3 Right?

4 I think that takes us past our magic number of 43.

5 MS. FARHADIAN: That's not what we mean, Your Honor.

6 That's not -- that's not I think what Mr. Amatruda
7 meant.

8 THE COURT: I don't know what you are saying then.

9 MS. FARHADIAN: I think what we are saying is --
10 what we are saying is we need three more and here is how. So
11 we stopped at number 136. Right?

12 So if he were to look at jurors one through 136 and 13 look at who is remaining in there, combining the precleared
14 jurors in numerical order up until 136, and the people who 15 survived today, up until 136, we think that's 40 people.

16 So that's assuming that --

17 THE COURT: You count how many people?

18 MS. FARHADIAN: Forty. Our magic number is 30.

19 So --

20 THE COURT: No. Our magic number is 43.

21 MS. FARHADIAN: Sorry.

22 THE COURT: We still don't have enough. The other
23 thing is that we are not starting the evidence until Monday.
24 So I would like to have a cushion of about 47, 48 jurors.

25 (Continued on next page.)

1 MS. FARHADIAN: Sure.

2 THE COURT: To come back on the 7th, and then the
3 first -- we'll just proceed from there of precleared people --
4 rather, completely qualified jurors.

5 MS. FARHADIAN: So, I think we're in agreement. I
6 think if you even questioned maybe like ten more, I think that
7 then, realizing every time we add some from this pool, we add
8 some from the precleared pool, I believe we would arrive at 9 something around forty-seven, which gives the cushion your 10 Honor is asking for.

11 We talked about that. Probably about ten more might 12 get us over the hump.

13 If we stopped at 136 -- if we stopped at 150, with 14 whoever is left through 150, we might get there.

15 MR. AMATRUDA: Your Honor, we're not talking about 16 how many people to bring back. I think we should bring back
17 these forty. It's when your Honor stops asking follow-up
18 questions, it would just be a cutoff for that. That's all
19 we're saying.

20 MS. FARHADIAN: We could even revisit it at that 21 point and make sure our math is correct.

22 (Pause.)

23 THE COURT: We have thirty-eight jurors that nobody
24 had a problem with based on the questionnaire; right?

25 MR. RINALDO: Right.

1 THE COURT: I'm having them come in tomorrow
2 morning. I don't see why we just don't take these
3 thirty-eight that nobody had problems with. Most of them are 4 in the lower numbers. More than half of them are in the lower
5 numbers as it is.

6 MS. FARHADIAN: Eighteen of them are in the numbers
7 that line up with the number we stopped at today. That's how 8 we got the forty.

9 THE COURT: Okay. So, if we bring them in, I was 10 planning, as I told the attorneys, just so that we hear them
11 talking and get a sense of them, just picking randomly some 12 questions, maybe some media questions, or one or two questions
13 to get them chatting a little bit, and let's go through the 14 thirty-eight. The other forty that we have left are the 15 people that we have problems with, I mean, really bigger
16 problems with. We've already gone through -- this is part of 17 the problem why we don't understand each other, is because 18 when I'm talking, you people are talking.

19 MS. FARHADIAN: I apologize, your Honor.

20 THE COURT: This was the system that I had proposed 21 before. Actually, not even, because at first, we thought we
22 had more people that there were no issues with. The defense
23 had no problem proceeding this way. And then we have the 24 people who were not stricken today coming back in the 25 afternoon. We'll have the thirty-eight coming back in the

1 afternoon.

2 I'm assuming that there isn't something that hasn't
3 happened in the interim to make them unqualified, and that
4 should give us more than ample jurors to get our jury pool
5 from. And it's not really breaking that much from the 6 randomness of the original system. It's still pretty random,
7 and I think it will be a lot less time-consuming.

8 MS. FARHADIAN: So, your Honor, just so I make sure
9 we understand, we will go in numerical order. These people,
10 the twenty-two who survived today, will get integrated back in 11 their numerical order with the first thirty-eight?

12 THE COURT: They'll get integrated with these in the 13 afternoon when they come back.

14 MS. FARHADIAN: Okay.

15 THE COURT: So then, they will be seated in a range,
16 so that you can take a look at them all together and 17 integrated. I think we'll go through a lot faster in the 18 morning than if we have to go through another forty that have 19 issues.

20 (Pause.)

21 THE COURT: You see all these multiple-colored tabs
22 on here? These are the problems. Each color represents a
23 party that has a problem with the particular juror. It
24 includes me and my law clerks, the defense and the government.
25 If we go through these, we will spend an entire day just going

1 through these, whereas if we go through the ones that nobody
2 had issues with, off the questionnaire, I'm happy to give you
3 some flavor of who they are, get them to chat a little bit,
4 make sure that nothing has come up in the interim, we will
5 have these that we can call in if, for some reason, something
6 horrible happens with these that no one has problems with.

7 MR. AMATRUDA: It makes sense, Judge.

8 THE COURT: I think it will go through a lot quicker
9 and we can have our jury by tomorrow afternoon.

10 THE CLERK: Can I tell her to let those people go
11 with the instruction that they just keep calling?

12 THE COURT: Yes. If we have that terrible bad luck
13 that they have problems, then we'll tell these people to come
14 back Wednesday morning.

15 MR. AMATRUDA: So we're clear, we're reconvening
16 tomorrow at 215.

17 THE COURT: No. At 9:30.

18 MS. FARHADIAN: We'll be here.

19 THE COURT: 9:30, so that we can go through the ones
20 that had clean questionnaires.

21 MR. AMATRUDA: Got it.

22 MS. FARHADIAN: And then do our peremptories.

23 THE COURT: The peremptories are in the afternoon,
24 so we can integrate the ones that survived today, put them in 25 sequential order, so the people who were questioned today can

1 be put in numerical order.

2 MR. AMATRUDA: Yes, your Honor.

3 MR. RINALDO: Yes, your Honor.

4 (Pause.)

5 THE COURT: We're good?

6 MR. AMATRUDA: Yes, your Honor.

7 MR. RINALDO: Yes, your Honor.

8 THE COURT: We can let the marshals do their thing
9 and transport the defendants back.

10 MR. ROYCE: I would ask you not to ask us if we are 11 good on this again, because that may cause a problem.

12 THE COURT: Okay.
